PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE.

17. (1) The procedure prescribed in the chapters and sections of the Code of Civil Procedure specified in the second schedule to that Code, as amended by this Act, shall, so far as those chapters and sections are applicable, be the procedure followed in a Court of Small Causes in all suits cognizable by it and in all proceedings arising out of such suits:

Provided that an applicant for an order to set aside a decree passed ex parte or for a review of judgment shall, at the time of presenting his application, either deposit in the Court the amount due from him under the decree or in pursuance of the judgment, or give security to the satisfaction of the Court for the performance of the decree or compliance with the judgment, as the Court may direct.

(2) Where a person has become liable as surety under the proviso to sub-section (1), the security may be realized in manner provided by section 253 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

18. (1) Suits cognizable by the Registrar under section 12, sub-sections (3) and (4), shall be tried by him, and decrees passed therein shall be executed by him, in like manner in all respects as the Judge might try the suits, and execute the decrees, respectively.

(2) The Judge may transfer to his own file, or to that of the Additional Judge if an Additional Judge has been appointed, any suit or other proceeding pending on the file of the Registrar.

19. (1) When the Judge of a Court of Small Causes is absent, and an Additional Judge has not been appointed or, having been appointed, is also absent, the Registrar may admit a plaint, or return or reject a plaint for any reason for which the Judge might return or reject it.

(2) The Judge may, of his own motion or on the application of a party, return or reject a plaint which has been admitted by the Registrar, or admit a plaint which has been returned or rejected by him:

Provided that, where a party applies for the return or rejection or the admission of a plaint under this sub-section, and his application is not made at the first sitting of the Judge after the day on which the Registrar admitted, or returned or rejected, the plaint, the Judge shall dismiss the application unless the applicant satisfies him that there was sufficient cause for not making the application at that sitting.

20. (1) If, before the date appointed for the hearing of a suit, the defendant or his agent duly authorised in that behalf appears before the Registrar and admits the plaintiff's claim, the Registrar may, if the Judge is absent, and an Additional Judge has not been appointed or, having been appointed, is also absent, pass against the defendant, upon the admission, a decree which shall have the same effect as a decree passed by the Judge.

(2) Where a decree has been passed by the Registrar under sub-section (1), the Judge may grant an application for review of judgment, and re-hear the suit, on the same conditions, on the same grounds and in the same manner as if the decree had been passed by himself.

21. (1) If the Judge is absent, and an Additional Judge has not been appointed or, having been appointed, is also absent, the Registrar may, subject to any instructions which he may have received from the Judge or, with respect to decrees or orders made by an Additional Judge, from the Additional Judge, make any orders in respect of applications for the execution of decrees and orders made by the Court of which he is Registrar, or sent to that Court for execution, which the Judge might make under this Act.

(2) The Judge, in the case of any decree or order with respect to the execution of which the Registrar has made an order under sub-section (1), or the Additional Judge, in the case of any such decree or order which has been made by himself and with respect to which proceedings have not been taken by the Judge under this sub-section, may, of his own motion, or on application made by a party within fifteen days from the date of the order of the Registrar or of the execution of any process issued in pursuance of that order, reverse or modify the order.

(3) The period of fifteen days mentioned in sub-section (2) shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, as though the application of the party were an application for review of judgment.

22. When the Judge of a Court of Small Causes is absent and an Additional Judge has not been appointed or, having been appointed, is also absent, the Registrar or other chief ministerial officer of the Court may exercise from time to time the power which the Court possesses of adjourning the hearing of any suit or other proceeding, and fix a day for the further hearing thereof.

(2) When a Court returns a plaint under sub-section (1), it shall comply with the provisions of the second paragraph of section 57 of the 1882. Code of Civil Procedure and make such order with respect to costs as it deems just, and the Court shall, for the purposes of the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, be deemed to have been unable to entertain the suit by reason of a cause of a nature like to that of defect of jurisdiction.

(2) The relation of the District Court to a Court of Small Causes, with respect to administrative control, shall be the same as that of the District Court to a Civil Court of the lowest grade competent to try an original suit of the value of five thousand rupees in that portion of the territories administered by the Local Government in which the Court of Small Causes is established.

29. A Court of Small Causes shall use a seal of such form and dimensions as are prescribed by the Local Government.

30. The Local Government may, by order in writing, abolish a Court of Small Causes.

31. (1) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent the Local Government from appointing a person who is a Judge or Additional Judge of a Court of Small Causes to be also a Judge of any other Civil Court or to be a Magistrate of any class or to hold any other public office.

(2) When a Judge or Additional Judge is so appointed, the ministerial officers of his Court shall, subject to any rules which the Local Government may make in this behalf, be deemed to be ministerial officers appointed to aid him in the discharge of the duties of the other office.

The Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887.(Chapter V.—Supplemental Provisions.—Sections 32-37. The First Schedule.—Enactments repealed.)

Application of Act to Courts invested with jurisdiction of Court of Small Causes.

32. (1) So much of Chapters III and IV as relates to—

- (a) the nature of the suits cognizable by Courts of Small Causes,
- (b) the exclusion of the jurisdiction of other Courts in those suits,
- (c) the practice and procedure of Courts of Small Causes,
- (d) appeal from certain orders of those Courts and revision of cases decided by them, and
- (e) the finality of their decrees and orders subject to such appeal and revision as are provided by this Act, applies to Courts invested by or under any enactment for the time being in force with the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes so far as regards the exercise of that jurisdiction by those Courts.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) with respect to Courts invested with the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes applies to suits instituted or proceedings commenced in those Courts before the date on which they were invested with that jurisdiction.

33. A Court invested with the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes, with respect to the exercise of that jurisdiction, and the same Court, with respect to the exercise of its jurisdiction in suits of a civil nature which are not cognizable by a Court of Small Causes, shall, for the purposes of this Act and the Code of Civil Procedure, be deemed to be different Courts.

Modification of Code as so applied.

34. Notwithstanding anything in the last two foregoing sections,—

(a) when, in exercise of the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes, a Court invested with that jurisdiction sends a decree for execution to itself as a Court having jurisdiction in suits of a civil nature which are not cognizable by a Court of Small Causes, or

(b) when a Court, in the exercise of its jurisdiction in suits of a civil nature which are not cognizable by a Court of Small Causes, sends a decree for execution to itself as a Court invested with the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes,— the documents mentioned in section 224 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall not be sent with the decree unless in any case the Court, by order in writing, requires them to be sent.

35. (1) Where a Court of Small Causes, or a Court invested with the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes, has from any cause ceased to have jurisdiction with respect to any case, any proceeding in relation to the case, whether before or after decree, which, if the Court had not ceased to have jurisdiction, might have been had therein, may be had in the Court which, if the suit out of which the proceeding has arisen were about to be instituted, would have jurisdiction to try the suit.

(2) Nothing in this section applies to cases for which special provision is made in the Code of Civil Procedure, as extended to Courts of Small Causes, or in any other enactment for the time being in force.

36. In the third division of the second schedule to the Indian Limitation Act, 1877,—

(a) after No. 160 the following shall be inserted, namely:—

"160A. For a review of judgment by a Provincial Court of Small Causes, or by a Court invested with the jurisdiction of a Provincial Court of Small Causes when exercising that jurisdiction.	Ditto.	The date of the decree or order."
--	--------	-----------------------------------

and (b) in No. 173, the words, figures and letter "No. 160 A and" shall be inserted before the word and figures "No. 162."

37. All orders required by this Act to be made in writing by the Local Government shall be published in the official Gazette.

S. HARVEY JAMES,

Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to Courts of Small Causes established beyond the Presidency-towns, was presented to the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 11th February, 1887 :—

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

WE, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to Courts of Small Causes established beyond the Presidency-towns was referred, have considered the Bill and the papers noted on the margin, and have now the honour to submit this our Report.

2. Section 1.—We consider that this measure should extend to the whole of British India, including the Scheduled Districts. We have, therefore, removed the words which excepted the Scheduled Districts from the operation of the proposed Act.

3. Section 2.—We have provided for the continuance of Courts established, and orders made, under the enactments repealed by Act XI of 1865.

4. Section 3.—We have provided that the Act is not to affect any proceedings before or after decree in any suit instituted before the commencement of the Act, and we have removed from the section the reference to Act III of 1859, that Act being about to be repealed by the Council of the Governor General. The reference to the Army Act of 1881 will be covered by the saving of special laws which we have proposed to add to the section.

5. Section 4.—Several of the definitions have, since the Bill was introduced, been enacted in the General Clauses Act, 1887. As section 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure extends to Courts of Small Causes, the definition of "District" and "District Court" seem to us to be superfluous.

6. Section 5.—We have transferred to this section the substance of section 28.

7. Section 7.—We have provided that the fixing of times of sitting by a Judge of more than one Court of Small Causes shall be subject to the sanction of the District Court.

8. Section 9 (section 10 of Bill as revised by us).—We have provided for orders under this section being made after consultation with the High Court.

9. Section 11 (section 12 of Bill as revised).—We have proposed that the Registrar of a Court of Small Causes shall be appointed, not by the Judge of the Court, but, as under Act XI of 1865, by the Local Government.

10. Sections 12 and 13 (section 13 of Bill as revised).—It is proposed to make the establishment of a Court of Small Causes part of the Civil Court Ministerial Service of the district in which the Court is situate.

11. Section 14.—We have so amended this section as to leave unfettered the discretion of High Courts as to the powers and duties which may by rules under the section be conferred and imposed on ministerial officers of Courts of Small Causes.

12. Section 16.—We have proposed to omit this section on the ground of its being not more necessary in the case of Courts of Small Causes than in that of other Courts.

From Chief Secretary to Government, North-Western Provinces and Oudh, No. 633—VII-246-22, dated 18th August, 1886, and enclosure [Papers No. 19].

From Secretary to Government, Punjab, No. 888, dated 26th August, 1886, and enclosures [Papers No. 20].

13. Section 19 (section 17 of Bill as revised).—We have met the objections to proviso (a) by enabling the Court to take security for the performance of the decree instead of requiring the deposit of the amount of the decree, by omitting from the second schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure the dilatory sections of Chapter XLVII, and by extending the time within which an application may be made for a review of judgment.

Proviso (b) has been transferred to the Bill to amend the Code of Civil Procedure which is now pending before the Council of the Governor General.

14. Section 20.—We have given effect to the opinion, which is very generally expressed, that the whole of Chapter VIII of the Code should extend to Courts of Small Causes.

15. Section 21.—Seeing that sections 223 and 228 of the Code extend to Courts of Small Causes, this section seems to us to be unnecessary. We have therefore removed it from the Bill.

16. Section 23 (section 19 of Bill as revised).—We have acted on a suggestion that some discretion should be given to the Judge as to the admission or dismissal of an application which is made under this section subsequently to the first sitting of the Judge after the plaint was admitted, or returned or rejected, by the Registrar.

17. Section 22 of Bill as revised.—This section has been suggested to us by the Judge of the Courts of Small Causes at Surat and Broach.

18. Section 23 of Bill as revised.—This section is based on suggestions made by several Judges of experience in different parts of the country.

19. Section 24 of Bill as revised.—This section supplements the defective expression of section 589 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

20. Section 25 of Bill as revised.—The opinion appears to be universal that the ruling of the Privy Council in Amir Hassan Khan versus Sheo Baksh Singh (I. L. R. 11 Cal. 6) has rendered it absolutely necessary to extend the jurisdiction which the High Courts possess over the judicial proceedings of Courts of Small Causes and of other Courts invested with their powers. It is of course desirable that nothing should be done to encourage needless resort to the High Court, but, as the Hon'ble the Chief Justice and Judges of the High Court at Fort William have observed, this consideration should be one rather for the High Court than to be used to remove an important branch of the lower judicature from all control and so to deprive it of the advantage of a subordinate relation to that authority which exists for the express purpose of guiding the inferior tribunals by its exposition of the law.

21. Section 26 of Bill as revised.—The only part of this section which calls for notice here is that which applies Chapter XVI of the Code of Civil Procedure to Courts of Small Causes. That Chapter does apply to Presidency Courts and the balance of opinion is strongly in favour of making it applicable to Provincial Courts of Small Causes also.

22. Section 29 (section 28 of Bill as revised).—We have added a sub-section descriptive of the nature of the administrative control to be vested in the District Court.

23. Section 32 (section 31 of Bill as revised).—We have so expressed this section as to make it clear that the Local Government may appoint a Judge of a Court of Small Causes to be a Registrar under the Indian Registration Act, 1877, or to hold any other public office.

24. Section 33, sub-section (1) (section 32, sub-section (1), of Bill as revised).—We have added words supplementary to section 25 of the Bill as revised, and a sub-section for the purpose of solving a question which has frequently been raised.

25. Section 34 of Bill as revised.—This section is suggested by the case reported at I. L. R. 9 Bom. 237.

26. Section 35 of Bill as revised.—This section has been suggested by the opinions on the Bill, and follows a section inserted for the same purpose in the Bengal Civil Courts Bill now pending before the Council of the Governor General.

27. The First Schedule.—We have, we believe, completed the list of necessary repeals.

28. The Second Schedule.—By our amendments of this schedule we have placed the following suits within the cognizance of Provincial Courts of Small Causes, namely:—

- (a) suits against local authorities, including municipalities;
- (b) suits for recovery of rent of agricultural land in certain circumstances;
- (c) suits for enforcement of lien on moveable property, and by pawnors for the redemption or recovery of pledges; and
- (d) suits under section 283 and section 332 of the Code of Civil Procedure:

and we have excluded from the cognizance of those Courts the following suits, namely:—

- (a) suits to recover from a person to whom compensation has been paid under the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, the whole or any part of the compensation;
- (b) suits relating to trusts;
- (c) suits for property which a plaintiff has conveyed while insane;
- (d) suits on judgments;
- (e) suits to compel refund of assets improperly distributed under section 295 of the Code of Civil Procedure;
- (f) suits for the winding-up of the business of a partnership after its dissolution;
- (g) suits for surplus collections of mortgaged property or for profits of immoveable property wrongfully received;

- (h) suits for loss occasioned by the death of a person caused by actionable wrong ;
 (i) suits for compensation for certain torts ;
 (j) suits for dower ;
 (k) suits for custody of minors ;
 (l) suits for shares in perquisites of hereditary offices and in offerings at shrines ;
 and
 (m) suits by one of several joint mortgagors of immoveable property for contribution in respect of money paid for the redemption of the mortgaged property.
29. The publication ordered by the Council has been made as follows :—

CHAPTER II.

RULES FOR ALL VOYAGES.

6. (1) A ship carrying passengers shall not depart or proceed from, or discharge passengers at, any port or place within British

The Native Passenger Ships Act, 1887.(Chapter II.—Rules for all Voyages.—Sections 7-14.)

India other than a port or place appointed in this behalf by the Local Government.

(2) After a ship has departed or proceeded on a voyage from a port or place so appointed, a person shall not be received on board as a passenger except at some other port or place so appointed.

7. (1) The master, owner or agent of a ship so departing or proceeding shall give notice to an officer appointed in this behalf by the Local Government that the ship is to carry passengers, and of her destination, and of the proposed time of sailing.

(2) The notice shall be given not less than twenty-four hours before that time.

8. After receiving the notice, the officer aforesaid or a person authorized by him shall be at liberty at all times to enter on the ship and inspect her and her fittings and the provisions and stores in her.

9. (1) A ship intended to carry passengers shall not commence a voyage from a port or place appointed under this Act, unless the master holds two certificates to the effect mentioned in the two next following sections.

(2) The officer whose duty it is to grant a port-clearance for the ship shall not grant it unless the master holds those certificates.

10. The first of the certificates (hereinafter called "certificate A") shall state that the ship is seaworthy and properly equipped, fitted and ventilated, and the number of passengers which she is capable of carrying.

11. The second of the certificates (hereinafter called "certificate B") shall state—

- (a) the voyage which the ship is to make, and the intermediate ports, if any, at which she is to touch;
- (b) that she has the proper complement of officers and seamen;
- (c) that food, fuel and pure water over and above what is necessary for the crew, and the other things, if any, prescribed for the ship by the rules under this Act, have been placed on board, of the quality prescribed by the rules, properly packed, and sufficient to supply the passengers on board during the voyage which the ship is to make (including such detention in quarantine as may be probable) according to the scale for the time being prescribed by those rules;
- (d) that the master holds certificate A;
- (e) if the ship is to make a short voyage in a season of foul weather, and to carry upper-deck passengers, that she is furnished with substantial bulwarks and a double awning or with other sufficient protection against the weather;

(f) if she is to carry passengers to any port in the Red Sea, that she is propelled principally by steam, and, if she is to carry more than one hundred passengers to any such port, that she has on board a medical officer licensed in accordance with the rules under this Act; and

(g) such other particulars, if any, as may be prescribed by those rules.

12. The person by whom certificate A and certificate B are to be granted shall be the officer appointed under section 7.

13. Where the master of a ship produces to that officer either of the following certificates, namely,—

(a) a valid certificate granted by the Board of Trade or by a British Colonial Government, or

(b) a certificate granted under the authority of a British Indian Government, on a date not more than one year before the proposed day of sailing, and in force and applicable to the voyage on which the ship is to proceed or the service on which she is about to be employed, the officer may, if the particulars required by section 10 are certified thereby, take the certificate as evidence of those particulars, and it shall then be deemed to be a certificate A for the purposes of this Act.

14. (1) After receiving the notice required by section 7, the officer appointed under that section may, if he thinks fit, cause the ship to be surveyed at the expense of the master or owner by competent surveyors, who shall report to him whether the ship is, in their opinion, seaworthy and properly equipped, fitted and ventilated for the voyage which she is to make:

Provided that he shall not cause a ship holding a certificate mentioned in section 13, clause (a) or clause (b), to be surveyed unless, by reason of the ship having met with damage or having undergone alterations, or on other reasonable ground, he considers it likely that she may be found unseaworthy or not properly equipped, fitted or ventilated for the voyage.

(2) If the officer causes a survey to be made of a ship holding any such certificate, and the surveyors report that the ship is seaworthy and properly equipped, fitted and ventilated for the voyage, and that there was no reasonable ground why the officer should have thought it likely that she would be found unseaworthy, or not properly equipped, fitted or ventilated

The Native Passenger Ships Act, 1887.

(Chapter II. Rules for all Voyages.—Sections 15-17. Chapter III.—Rules for Short Voyages.—Sections 18-20. Chapter IV.—Rules for Long Voyages.—Section 21.)

for the voyage, the expense of the survey shall be paid by the Local Government.

15. (1) The officer authorized to grant a certificate under this Act in respect of a ship shall not grant it unless he is satisfied that she has not on board any cargo likely from its quality, quantity or mode of stowage to prejudice the health or safety of the passengers.

(2) But save as aforesaid, and subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), it shall be in the discretion of the officer to grant or withhold the certificate.

(3) In the exercise of that discretion that officer shall be subject to the control of the Local Government, and of any intermediate authority which that Government appoints in this behalf.

16. The master or owner shall post up in a conspicuous part of the ship, so as to be visible to persons on board thereof, a copy of each of the certificates granted under this Act in respect of the ship, and shall keep those copies so posted up throughout the voyage.

17. If an officer appointed in this behalf by the Local Government is satisfied that a passenger has brought on board a ship for his own use food of the quality and in the quantity for the time being prescribed by the rules under this Act, the requirements of this Act respecting the supply of food for passengers shall not apply so far as regards the supply of food for that passenger.

CHAPTER III.

RULES FOR SHORT VOYAGES.

18. (1) For seasons of fair weather, a ship performing a short voyage shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, contain in the between-decks at least six superficial feet and thirty-six cubic feet of space available for every between-decks passenger, and on the upper-deck at least four superficial feet available for each such passenger and six superficial feet available for each upper-deck passenger.

(2) For seasons of foul weather, a ship propelled by sails and performing a short voyage shall, subject as aforesaid, contain in the between-decks at least twelve superficial feet and seventy-two cubic feet of space available for every between-decks passenger, and on the upper-deck at least four superficial feet available for each such passenger and twelve superficial feet available for each upper-deck passenger.

(3) For seasons of foul weather, a ship propelled by steam, or partly by steam and partly by sails, and performing a short voyage, shall, subject as aforesaid, contain in the between-decks at least nine superficial feet and fifty-four cubic feet of space available for every between-decks passenger, and on the upper-deck at least four superficial feet available for each such passenger and nine superficial feet available for each upper-deck passenger.

(4) But in seasons of foul weather a ship shall not carry upper-deck passengers unless she is furnished with substantial bulwarks and a double awning or with other sufficient protection against the weather.

19. If a ship performing a short voyage takes additional passengers on board at an intermediate place, the master shall obtain from the officer appointed at that port or place under section 7 a supplementary certificate stating—

- (a) the number of passengers so taken on board, and
- (b) that food, fuel and pure water over and above what is necessary for the crew, and the other things, if any, prescribed for the ship by the rules under this Act, have been placed on board, of the quality prescribed by the rules, properly packed, and sufficient to supply the passengers on board during the voyage which the ship is to make (including such detention in quarantine as may be probable) according to the scale for the time being prescribed by those rules:

Provided that, if the certificate B held by the master of the ship states that food, fuel and pure water over and above what is necessary for the crew, and the other things, if any, prescribed for her by the rules under this Act, have been placed on board, of the quality prescribed by the rules, properly packed, and sufficient to supply the full number of passengers which she is capable of carrying, the master shall not be bound to obtain any such supplementary certificate.

20. When the ship reaches her final port or place of arrival, the master shall notify to such officer as the Governor General in Council appoints in this behalf the date and supposed cause of death of every passenger dying on the voyage.

CHAPTER IV.

The master of a ship departing or proceeding on a long voyage from any port or place in British India shall sign two statements, specifying the number and the respective sexes of all the passengers, and the number of the crew, and shall deliver them to the officer appointed under section 7, who shall thereupon, after having first satisfied himself that the numbers are correct, countersign and return to the master one of the statements.

23. The master shall note in writing on the statement returned to him, and on any additional statement to be made under the next following section, the date and supposed cause of death of any passenger who may die on the voyage, and shall, when the ship arrives at her port or place of destination or at any port or place at which it may be intended to land passengers, and, before any passengers leave the ship, produce the statement, with any additions thereto made, to a person lawfully exercising consular authority on behalf of Her Majesty at the port or place or to the Chief Customs-officer thereat or the officer (if any) appointed there under section 7.

Ship taking additional passengers at intermediate place. 24. (1) In either of the following cases, namely,—

(a) if after the ship has departed or proceeded on a long voyage any additional passengers are taken on board at a port or place within British India appointed under this Act for the embarkation of passengers, or the master shall obtain a fresh certificate to the effect of certificate B from the officer appointed at that port or place under section 7, and shall make additional statements specifying the number and the respective sexes of all the additional passengers.

(2) All the foregoing provisions of this Act with respect to certificate B and statements concerning passengers shall be applicable to any certificate granted or statement made under this section.

25. A ship carrying passengers from or to any port in British India to or from any port in the Red Sea shall be propelled principally by steam.

28. The authority at Aden empowered to grant the bill of health shall refuse to grant it if the ship has on board a greater number of passengers than the number allowed for the ship by or under this Act, and may refuse to grant it if the requirements of any rule under this Act are not complied with on board the ship.

29. In the case of a ship carrying passengers from any port in British India other than Aden to any port in the Red Sea, the officer whose duty it is to grant a port-clearance for the ship shall not grant the clearance unless and until the master, owner or agent of the ship and two sureties resident in British India have executed in favour of the Secretary of State for India in Council a joint and several bond, for the sum of five thousand rupees, conditioned—

(a) that the ship shall touch at Aden on the outward voyage and there obtain a clean bill of health, and shall do the same on the homeward voyage if the ship continues to carry more than sixty passengers, and

(b) that the master and medical officer (if any) of the ship shall comply with, on the outward voyage, and also on the homeward voyage if the ship continues to carry more than sixty passengers, the provisions of this Act and of such rules relating to ships carrying passengers between ports in British India and ports in the Red Sea as the Governor General in Council may make under this Act.

30. (1) The Local Government may direct that no passenger shall be received on board any ship or any ship of a specified class carrying passengers from any port in British India to any port in the Red Sea unless and until the passenger has been inspected, at such time and place, and in such manner, as the Local Government may fix in this behalf, by a medical officer to be appointed by that Government for the purpose.

(Chapter V.—Penalties.—Sections 31-38.)

(2) If in the opinion of the officer making an inspection under this section a passenger is suffering from any dangerously infectious or contagious disease, the passenger shall not be permitted to embark.

CHAPTER V.

PENALTIES.

31. If a ship departs or proceeds on a voyage from, or discharges passengers at, any port or place within British India in contravention of the provisions of section 6, sub-section (1), or section 9, or if a person is received as a passenger on board a ship in contravention of the provisions of section 6, sub-section (2), the master or owner shall, for every passenger carried in the ship, or for every passenger so discharged or received on board, be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or with both, and the ship, if found within two years in any port or place within British India, may be seized and detained by a Chief Customs-officer until the penalties incurred under this Act by her master or owner have been adjudicated, and the payment of the fines imposed on him under this Act, with all costs, has been enforced, under the provisions of this Act:

Provided that the aggregate term of imprisonment awarded under this section shall not exceed one year.

32. If a person impedes or refuses to allow the entry or inspection authorized by or under this Act, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for each offence, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with both.

33. If a master or owner without reasonable excuse, the burden of proving which shall lie upon him, fails to comply with the requirements of section 16 with respect to the posting of copies of certificates, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or with both.

34. If a master fails to comply with any of the requirements of section 22 or section 23, as to the statements concerning passengers, or wilfully makes any false entry or note in or on any such statement, or without reasonable excuse, the burden of proving which shall lie upon him, fails to obtain any such supplementary certificate as is mentioned in section 19, or to report deaths as required by section 20, or to obtain any such fresh certificate, or to make any such statement of the number of additional passengers, as is mentioned in section 24, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for every such offence, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with both.

35. If a master, after having obtained any of the certificates mentioned in section 9, section 19 or section 24, fraudulently does or suffers to be done anything whereby the certificate becomes inapplicable to the altered state of the ship, her passengers or other matters to which the certificate relates, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with both.

36. If a master without reasonable excuse, the burden of proving which shall lie upon him, omits to supply passengers with the allowance of food, fuel and water prescribed by the rules under this Act, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every passenger who has sustained detriment by the omission.

37. (1) If a ship carrying passengers to or from any port or place in British India has on board a number of passengers which is greater than the number allowed for the ship by or under this Act, the master and owner shall, for every passenger over and above that number, be each punished with fine which may extend to twenty rupees, and the master shall further be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one week in respect of each such passenger:

Provided that the aggregate term of imprisonment awarded under this section shall not exceed six months.

(2) Any officer authorized in this behalf by the Local Government may cause all passengers over and above the number allowed by or under this Act to disembark and may forward them to any port at which they may have contracted to land, and recover the cost of so forwarding them from the master or owner of the ship as if the cost were a fine imposed under this Act, and a certificate under the hand of that officer shall be conclusive proof of the amount of the cost aforesaid.

38. If a ship carrying passengers from any port or place beyond British India to any port or place in British India has on board a number of passengers greater either than the number allowed for the ship by or under this Act or than the number allowed by the license or certificate, if any, granted in respect of the ship at her port or place of departure, the master and owner shall, for every passenger in excess of that number, be each punished with fine which may extend to twenty rupees.

The Native Passenger Ships Act, 1887.

39. If the master of a ship lands any passenger at any port or place other than the port or place at which the passenger may have contracted to land, unless with his previous consent, or unless the landing is made necessary by perils of the sea or other unavoidable accident, the master shall, for every such offence, be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or with both.

40. If a ship, otherwise than by reason of perils of the sea or other unavoidable accident, touches at any port or place in contravention of any express or implied contract or engagement with the passengers with respect to the voyage which the ship was to make and the time which that voyage was to occupy, whether the contract or engagement was made by public advertisement or otherwise, the master and owner shall each be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with both.

41. If a ship carrying passengers from or to any port in British India to or from any port in the Red Sea is not propelled principally by steam as required by section 25, the master and owner shall each be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with imprisonment which may extend to three months, or with both.

42. If a ship carrying more than one hundred passengers from or to any port in British India to or from any port in the Red Sea has not on board a medical officer as required by section 26, the master of the ship shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with both.

43. If in the case of a ship to which section 27 applies the master without reasonable excuse, the burden of proving which shall lie upon him, fails to touch at Aden, or leaves that port without having obtained a bill of health under that section, he shall, for every such offence, be punished with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with both.

44. If in the case of any such ship as is referred to in the last foregoing section the master or the medical officer, if any, of the ship without reasonable excuse, the burden of proving which shall lie upon him, breaks, or omits or neglects to obey, any rule under this Act applicable to the ship, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with both.

45. If the master of a ship to which a direction under section 30 applies knowingly receives on board the ship any person in contravention of that section, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for each person so received, or with imprisonment which may extend to three months, or with both.

Procedure.

46. (1) Offences against this Act shall be punishable by a Magistrate.

(2) If the person on whom a fine is imposed under this Act is the master or owner of a ship, and the fine is not paid at the time and in the manner prescribed by the order of payment, the Magistrate may, in addition to the ordinary means prescribed by law for enforcing payment, direct by warrant the amount remaining unpaid to be levied by distress and sale of the ship, her tackle, furniture and apparel.

47. For the purpose of the adjudication of penalties under this Act, every offence against its provisions shall be deemed to have been committed within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Magistrate of the place where the offender is found.

48. The penalties to which masters and owners of ships are made liable by this Act shall be enforced only on information laid at the instance of officers appointed to grant certificates under this Act, or, at any port or place where there is no such officer, at the instance of the Chief Customs-officer.

49. Provided that the deposition shall not be admissible unless—

- (a) it is authenticated by the signature of the Justice, Magistrate or consular officer;

3. Section 5.—We have re-cast the definition of “passenger”, and so amended that of “voyage” as to render unnecessary the Illustration to the definition of “short voyage”. We have also modified, but not materially altered, the definitions of “Chief Customs-officer” and “Magistrate”.

4. Section 30, sub-section (1).—We have inserted the words “and in such manner” with the object of enabling Local Governments to issue suitable instructions with respect to the medical inspection of women embarking on passenger-ships.

5. Chapter V.—On the suggestion of the Solicitor to the Government of Bombay, we have thrown on the accused the burden of proving that certain infractions of the Act were unintentional or inevitable.

From section 38 (section 37 of Bill as revised by us) we have removed certain words which had reference to the frame of the Native Passenger Ships Act of 1870 rather than of the Act of 1876 or of the Bill.

By the same section we have empowered local authorities to forward passengers landed from an overcrowded ship to any port at which they had contracted to land, whether that port is within or beyond the limits of British India.

6. Section 51.—We have required information respecting the state of passenger-ships to be sent not only to ports of departure but also to ports of destination.

7. Section 53.—We have specially provided in sub-section (1) that the Governor General in Council may make rules to regulate the supply of appliances for saving life, and in sub-section (2) that rules under that sub-section are to be made with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council. In the latter sub-section we have further provided that rules may be made as to the time within which ships are to depart or proceed on their voyages after commencing to take passengers on board.

8. Section 56 (formerly section 57).—We have provided that orders made by the Governor General in Council under this section may be alternative to, or override, the provisions of sections 18 and 21.

9. Section 57 (formerly section 58).—We have added a sub-section providing for the enforcement of the conditions subject to which ships may be exempted from any of the provisions of the Act.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Act of the Governor General of India in Council received the assent of His Excellency the Governor General on the 25th February, 1887, and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT NO. XI OF 1887.

An Act to provide for the regulation of traffic on the Sindh-Pishin Section of the North-Western Railway.

WHEREAS it is inexpedient that the Indian Railway Act, 1879, so far as it applies to that part of the Sindh-Pishin section of the North-Western Railway which lies beyond the Province of Sindh, should apply thereto in its entirety; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Title, extent and commencement. 1. (1) This Act may be called the Sindh-Pishin Railway Act, 1887.

(2) It shall extend to all persons for whom the Governor General in Council has power to make laws and regulations at meetings for that purpose; and

(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. In the following sections of this Act, "railway" means that part of the Sindh-Pishin section of the North-Western Railway which, whether completed at the commencement of this Act or not, lies beyond the Province of Sindh.

3. (1) Unless and until extended under this section, no portion of the Indian Railway Act, 1879, IV of 1879, shall apply to any part of the railway.

(2) The Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, extend to the railway or any part thereof such portions of that Act as he thinks fit.

(3) In extending any portion of that Act to the railway or any part thereof the Governor General in Council may extend it subject to such modifications as he thinks fit.

4. (1) No person shall be entitled, as of right, to be carried on the railway or to have property carried thereon;

(2) But the carriage of passengers and property on the railway shall be permitted subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Governor General in Council may prescribe.

5. Where any person or property is permitted to be carried on the railway, the Government shall not be responsible for any injury which may happen to the person, or for any loss or damage which may occur in respect of the property, unless the injury happens, or the loss or damage occurs, on a part of the railway with respect to which the Governor General in Council has, by notification in the Gazette of India, announced that the Government accepts responsibility, to such extent as may be described in the notification, for injury happening, or loss or damage occurring, thereon.

S. HARVEY JAMES,

Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE Sindh-Pishin section of the North-Western Railway has been constructed for strategic purposes, and must be at times exclusively, and always preferentially, appropriated to the conveyance of troops, followers and military material and stores. Moreover, from the nature of the country through which the railway passes, some portions of the line are such as to render the risk of accident necessarily greater for a time at least than on ordinary railways.

In these circumstances it is proposed to enact that only such provisions of the Indian Railway Act, 1879, shall extend to this line as the Governor General in Council may consider it desirable to apply thereto. The Government does not propose to open the line generally for the conveyance of passengers and goods under ordinary conditions, but reserves the right to limit its responsibility for injury to the person, or loss of or damage to property, on certain portions of the line, which, as already remarked, was primarily designed for other purposes. Precedent for limiting the extent of the pecuniary responsibility of proprietors of railways for injury to the person is to be found in the Massachusetts Statutes of 1840 and in the New York Laws of 1847, and in regard to goods in the special contract permitted by the Indian Railway Act, 1879. But even if such precedents did not exist the circumstances of the case are such as to require legislation.

As a considerable part of the line lies in the territory of the Khán of Kalat and the proposed Act will not, as an Act of the Council of the Governor General for making Laws and Regulations, apply to the subjects of the Khán in that territory, it is proposed, by executive order made in exercise of the jurisdiction conferred by treaty on the Governor General in Council, to notify hereafter the substance of the proposed Act to be in force on the portion of the line which lies within Kalat.

The 24th February, 1887.

The total fall from 1st January to 26th February 1887 ...

The average fall of the corresponding period for 24 years, S. G.'s Office ...

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, and from observations made at 6h, 10h, 16h, and 22h.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The month of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

☁ fog, Δ dew.

The variations are negative when the mean for the week is less than the corresponding normal mean, and positive when greater. The cloud amount represents the part of the sky covered, the whole sky being denoted by 10. Under the head "District" observations of rainfall, the normal mean is given.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 25TH OF FEBRUARY 1887.

THERE is little to note in the meteorology of the past week. The barometer, which was more than a tenth of an inch above the average at the commencement of the week, fell steadily during the week, and was from $\cdot 15''$ to $\cdot 27''$ lower at the end than at the beginning of the week. This accompanied, and was probably mainly due to, a very rapid increase of temperature. The increase in the maximum day temperature varied from 4° to 8° , and in the minimum night temperature from 3° to 6° . Winds became unsteady and variable in the coast districts, and on the 24th southerly winds set in at the coast stations, which have continued to blow steadily up to the present date, and have extended over a large portion of Bengal. The air, which was before that date unusually dry over the whole of Bengal (more especially in South Bengal) became much damper, and the southerly winds have since brought up a considerable amount of cloud into Bengal and given damp foggy weather. The change, which has occurred during the week, is similar to, but more intense and rapid than, the transition from the cool weather of January to the hot weather of March and April, which is the chief feature of the weather of the last fortnight in February over South and Central Bengal.

It remains to be seen whether the steady fall of the barometer during the week is due to actions in the hill districts of North Bengal, which will result in rain over that area and in Assam or not. If the former, it will probably be followed by a short period of cooler weather.

The barometer fell steadily during the week, with the exception of a slight local rise in North Bengal and Behar on the 24th. The fall during the week was least at Chittagong, where it was $\cdot 15''$. It exceeded $\cdot 2''$ over the whole province except East Bengal, and was greatest in North Behar, where it was $\cdot 27''$. At Darjeeling it was $\cdot 21''$, so that the change was nearly as great at the altitude of Darjeeling (7,500 feet) as in the plains of Bengal. The mean pressure of the week was in defect by amounts varying from $\cdot 01''$ at Hazaribagh to $\cdot 05''$ at Calcutta and Gya.

The chief feature in the week was the rapid increase of temperature. The mean maximum temperature was above the average at all stations except Purneah. The excess was greatest at Darjeeling ($5\cdot 1^{\circ}$, and Dacca ($2\cdot 1^{\circ}$). The night temperature was below the average, except in Chutia Nagpur and Darjeeling. The defect was large in the coast districts only. This was mainly due to the cause mentioned in last week's report, viz. the delay in the establishment of the sea winds in the coast districts. The night temperature increased rapidly on the 23rd and 24th, and at the end of the week was practically identical with the normal.

The following table gives temperature data for eight representative stations for the past week:—

	Normal mean maximum temperature for the week ending 25th February 1887.	Actual mean maximum temperature for the week ending 25th February 1887.	Variation of actual from normal. The air was much drier than usual over the whole of Bengal, and more especially in the coast districts, at the commencement of the week. This continued until the 23rd or 24th, when the humidity began to increase rapidly, and at the end of the week the air was slightly damper than usual in all parts of the province except Chutia Nagpur. No rain fell during the week.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the province for the week ending Friday, the 25th of February 1887:—

MEMORANDUM.

THE returns from the principal Municipalities in Bengal (excepting Suburbs of Calcutta, from which no return has been received up to date) for the week ending 12th February 1887, present the following particulars:—

1. That births and deaths were registered in these Municipalities at the rates, respectively, of 20·2 and 20·6 per 1,000 of population, as opposed to 21·7 and 19·2 per 1,000 in the preceding week ending 5th February, indicating a retrogression in the registration of births, with an improvement in that of deaths.

2. That these events were returned in the highest proportions from the following Municipalities:—

Births.			Deaths.
	Ratio per mille.				Ratio per mille.
Hughli ...	33·6	Purneah	48·5
Durbhanga	31·5	Comillah	46·2
Bhagulpore	31·8	Serampore	37·3
		Naraingunge	33·1
		Gya	32·8
		Beauleah	31·5
		Puri	31·5

3. That the rates at which the several death-causes proved fatal, in comparison with the rates of the preceding week, were—

	Ratio per mille during the weeks ending—
	12th February 1887.	5th February 1887.
Cholera	1·0	·8
Small-pox
Fever	9·2	7·0
Bowel-complaints	3·5	3·1
Injury	·3	·5
Other causes	6·5	7·8

The chief points indicated by the above figures are that there was a noticeable increase of mortality from fever, and a sensible decrease in that from the maladies grouped under the head of "Other causes."

4. That while cholera proved notably fatal only in the Howrah Municipality, viz. at the rate of 4·6 per 1,000 of population, and small-pox furnished no death, fever and "Other causes" caused the highest mortality in the following Municipalities:—

Fever.		Other causes.

A special census of the Württemberg in the Thuringian Municipalities was recently taken, as the census of this section of the community, taken in February 1881, was not reliable owing to the Europeans being at a minimum in that month. The number of the natives of the Württemberg in this month, however, was estimated at least as much as the census of the Europeans.

GENERAL REMARKS AND EXPLANATIONS.

The result of the month's working shows a fair increase in 12 out of the 24 heads under which the whole traffic of the line is classified. The increase actually stands at 2,800'10 tons over and above the weight lifted during the corresponding period last year, the net result shewing an increase of 18'86 per cent. It must, however, be borne in mind that traffic was hampered in October 1885 by 2 untoward circumstances, viz., the breaks on the Eastern Bengal State Railway, resulting in the suspension of through traffic for six days, and the abandonment of the Sara-Damukdia route for the long lead via Khasia.

INCREASES.

Coal 1,411'42 tons.
This result is due to a larger quantity of locomotive coal having been carried during the month under review than in the corresponding period last year.
Cotton piece-goods 290'26 tons.
Increased despatches due to greater demand in the local markets.
Ginger 154'12 tons.
Due to a good crop and fair demand for exports.
Gunny-bags 326'05 tons.
A large quantity of hand-made gunny was despatched from Domar, Haldibari and Siliguri during the month under notice.
Grain and pulses 15'64 tons.
The transactions under this head represent an increase of 4'39 per cent. compared with the corresponding period of 1885.
Hides 32'48 tons.
A large business under this head was done at fairly good prices during the closing week of the month.
Jute 2,029'72 tons.
A fair amount of business was transacted chiefly in superior marks at firm prices during the middle of the month; in the opening and closing weeks, however, there was not much doing in the Calcutta market.
Liquor 2'50 tons.
The increase is not worth noticing.
Railway material 113'26 tons.
This represents despatches of engineering material and stores locally from stations to stations for repairs of the permanent-way.
Rice, husked 542'01 tons.
The market for this commodity has been fairly active during the month.
Tea 4'01 tons.
The increase is small and needs no explanation.
Timber 8'19 tons.
The increase is expected in the face of a falling off in August and September last.

DECREASES.

Cotton 2'16 tons.
The transaction under this head has been small and represents a decrease of 16'53 per cent.
Intoxicating drugs 7'90 tons.
The decrease appears to be a trade fluctuation and will probably be made up later on.
Miscellaneous 102'42 tons.
The increased despatches in September will account for the present decrease.
Metals 228'67 tons.
The paucity of garden materials for the tea districts appear to be the cause of this falling off.
Oil 15'04 tons.
There have been increased despatches under this head during the past three months, and the present decrease is a more trade fluctuation.
Paddy 1,260'69 tons.
The demand in the flooded districts, consequent upon the failure of the crop in these parts, gave an unprecedented impetus to this traffic last year.
Salt 401'58 tons.
There was an unusual increase under this head in October 1885, due to the check given to despatches in September 1885 on account of the breaks on the Eastern Bengal State Railway, and a fair comparison between the two periods cannot therefore be made.
Seed 28'11 tons.
The Calcutta market for all descriptions of seeds has been dull.
Sugar 15 tons.
The decrease is trifling.
Twist 4'36 tons.
The demand for this article fell off during the month.
Tobacco 73'48 tons.

INCREASES.

Betelnuts 143 tons.
Heavy despatches in this staple have again been made from the Bengal Central Flotilla stations during the month. The total weight lifted stands at 322 tons, against 179 tons for the corresponding month of last year.

Coal 481 tons.
Despatches for the Tagore steamers and for the use of the line account for this increase.

Jute 126 tons.
The gross weight lifted in this staple since the jute season commenced (August 1886) stands at 3,155 tons, against 776 tons for the same period last year. This comparatively large increase is undoubtedly to the tapping of the Madaripore and Magurah districts.

Rice 126 tons.
The traffic in this article is due to movement for local consumption.

Seeds 200 tons.

DECREASES.

Railway materials 262 tons.
During the corresponding period of last year, considerable quantities of materials were being despatched to repair the break in the line caused by the flood. This accounts for the falling off during the month under review.

Sugar 70 tons.
The Bhikergachi Mills have almost stopped working, and no improvement in this staple can be looked for until the new seasons crop of cane is cut.

INCREASE.

Tons.

Coal 64

This increase is due to less import during the last month and to steamer service between Jeeaganj and Cutwa.

Rice 801

The increase in this staple is due to plentiful crops and larger export from intermediate stations, Bokharu, Nowada and Takipur.

Jute 38

This increase is due to high rate in the market.

Gunny-bags and cloth 38

This increase is due to the increased grain traffic.

Provisions—

(3) Others 75

The increase under this head is due to potatoes being included in this, which was shown under different head during the corresponding period of 1886.

Railway plant and rolling-stock 38

The increase is due to larger quantity of materials carried during this month.

Silk, raw—

(2) Indian 18

The increase in this staple is due to tussar cocoons being imported from Barskar.

Sugar—

Drained and undrained 23

This increase is due to larger import for larger demands.

DECREASE.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE OPIUM DEPARTMENT DURING 1885-86.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT—MIS. REVENUE.

Calcutta, the 5th March 1887.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

A letter No. 98B, dated 31st January 1887, from the Officiating Secretary to the Board of Revenue, submitting the reports of the Opium Agents of Behar and Benares for the year 1885-86.

The weather during the year under review was, on the whole, exceptionally favourable until the commencement of March, when prospects altered in the western portion of the Benares Agency. The Agent gives the following description of the change which then unfortunately occurred:—

“On the 8th and 9th of March a very heavy storm of rain passed over the whole extent of the Agency. As collections were generally in progress, the loss was severe. Even in the districts least affected the juice exuding from the plants was washed off. Hail, too, fell very generally. The eastern districts escaped with comparatively slight damage, but in the western and northern tracts the loss was very great. In the Bareilly division it was estimated that the storm had reduced the outturn by nearly a half, and in the southern portions of Allahabad the loss was nearly as heavy. In Oudh and the Domb the outturn was also materially affected, although not to the same extent as in the two divisions above referred to. Where the crop escaped injury from hail it was attacked by blight; and although this fortunately made its appearance too late in the season to ruin the crop, it undoubtedly diminished the outturn which had at first been expected.”

There was a strong desire on the part of the ryots to sow new lands with opium, as the crop had proved very profitable during the two previous seasons, owing to the good outturn. But the stock in hand had been increased by the same cause, and the Lieutenant-Governor, on a consideration of all the facts of the case, directed that the area of cultivation should not be extended. The following statement gives a comparative view of the results obtained—

SEASON.	Area engaged for	Land sown for cultivation.	Net cultivation.	Produce at 70° consistence.
BEHAR.	Bighas.	Bighas.	Bighas.	Mds. s. c.
1884-85	4,42,326	4,45,588	4,33,163	55,802 7 8½

Decrease.
BENARES.
1884-85	4,60,218	4,75,195	4,71,232	78,061 28 2½
1885-86	4,65,861	5,00,946	4,98,361	61,634 0 0
Increase.	5,643	25,751	27,129
Decrease.	16,367 28 2½

It may be said that the apprehension that the supply of opium at present prices would become unprofitable to the cultivators, and that the poppy would be superseded by other crops, has for the present passed away. There is no longer any difficulty in obtaining at existing rates as much of the drug as is required for home consumption or exportation; and if more were needed, it would be readily produced.

The produce was 1,21,499 maunds of opium at 70° consistence, against 1,33,803 in the previous year. The decrease of 12,304 maunds is due to the loss caused in some places by the unfavourable weather in March; but for this the outturn would have somewhat exceeded that of 1884-85, which was the largest ever obtained. The average yield per bigha was 5 seers 4¼ chittacks in Behar, 4 seers 14¾ chittacks in the Benares Agency. In the latter Agency the average produce in 18-4-85 was 6 seers 9 chittacks a bigha, and the falling off indicates the unfavourable character of the season. The gross produce was smaller, and there was a further loss on its conversion into damdata at 70° consistence. The low consistence of the Benares opium was a subject of comment in last year's Resolution, and there has been a further decline during the year under report. Although the deficiency is mainly due to the weather, it arises in part from preventible causes, and the Lieutenant-Governor is glad to notice that the Agent recognises its importance. Mr. Rivett-Carnac writes :—

"During the past cold weather, officers were specially deputed to Partabgarh and Rai Bareilly, where the evil seemed greatest, to assist the regular officers of the districts in superintending collections and impressing upon the cultivators the importance of delivering the opium at a higher consistence and free from passewah. These efforts were neutralised by the unfavourable circumstances of the season; but I hope that the future will show better results in this respect, as the cultivators gain more experience than they at present possess. This season it is proposed to introduce a special description of plate to assist in raising the consistence of the opium."

The balances of advances made for cultivation outstanding at the end of the year were Rs. 16,913 in Behar and Rs. 11,316 in the Benares Agency, making a total of Rs. 28,229 against Rs. 26,753 last year. The amount is not large relatively to the sums advanced, but there is a considerable increase in Behar, although the loss of crop was not so great in that Agency as in Benares, where the balances have been reduced.

The amount advanced to opium cultivators for the construction of wells was Rs. 69,929, against Rs. 1,38,061 in the previous year. Under this head Mr. Rivett-Carnac

“Of the minor causes of the great popularity of the cultivation in these provinces, none is more effective than the granting of advances without interest for this purpose. I have always tried to impress the importance of the question upon the officers of the Agency, and it is to be hoped that the matter is better appreciated than before. Well advances, however, entail trouble and responsibility on the staff: and unless the local officer is himself keen on the subject, the subordinates of the department are only too glad to hold that the people do not care for advances for the construction or repair of wells. It is very rarely that Government suffers any loss from the transaction, and this free granting of advances is undoubtedly looked upon as a great boon by the cultivators throughout the Agency.”

The Lieutenant-Governor entirely agrees in the view thus expressed, and regrets that the Agent has not been able to give practical effect to it, the amount advanced in the Benares Agency having been Rs. 13,207 only, a sum which must be regarded as small, whether it is compared with that advanced during the previous year in the same Agency, or during the same year in the sister Agency.

There were 1,265 prosecutions for breach of the Opium Law during the year, against 1,284 in 1884-85, and in the great majority of cases convictions were obtained. The most important seizure reported was that of 19½ maunds of opium discovered in Azimgunge, packed in tobacco. The constant vigilance of Government officers is necessary to prevent very serious loss to the revenue from this form of evading excise duties. Very little opium pays duty in the producing districts, the inference being that such consumption as takes place is almost exclusively illicit, and the evil is not confined to those districts, as it is well known that a regular system of smuggling is carried on for the transport of the drug to distant places. At the same time it must be acknowledged that there are serious obstacles in the way of the complete suppression of illegal practices. The Benares Agent forcibly observes :—

“The difficulty in preventing the retention of small quantities of the produce lies in the enormous number of cultivators, the scattered nature of the cultivation, and the small staff of the department compared with the enormous area and the enormous number of producers to be supervised. The area under opium cultivation in these provinces is highas 5,00,941-17-3. The amount of excise opium now supplied to the Government of the North-Western Provinces is 1,279 maunds 10 seers. Assuming that two maunds are “smuggled” for every maund sold for excise purposes, this would indicate that on each bigha of land 3-26 chittacks was retained by the cultivator. The most careful and elaborate inspection by an enormous staff, twenty times as large as that now at the disposal of the department, could not secure an estimate of produce so accurate as to enable an officer to detect at the weighments the smuggling or retention of 3¼ chittacks on a bigha of opium land. Then the number of cultivators licensed in the department amounts to 818,644. The 2,559 maunds of opium indicated above might be smuggled, each cultivator keeping back 2 chittacks of opium. But the number of persons concerned in the collection very much exceeds the above figures. During the opium harvest each cultivator employs five or six coolies, or children or members of his family, to collect the produce. So, assuming five labourers to each cultivator, i.e., each man who appears on the license, the amount of opium could be divided among about five million persons, giving an average of one third chittack to each person on the figures taken above. When it is remembered that each person employed collects the produce on a small porous earthenware platter, which, even when scraped most carefully, still retains by absorption some opium, it will be understood that a large quantity of extract of opium can be supplied from this source alone.”

Government has lately passed orders which will have the effect of requiring the sanction of the officers of the Opium Department to the prosecution in Bengal of opium cultivators for such petty offences as the retention of infinitesimal quantities of the drug. It is for the Agent to see that the power thus trusted to the department is used with discretion, and that, while ryots are protected from malicious charges, there shall be no relaxation in the watchfulness of opium officers, and in the exertions of the Police to minimize the loss of revenue caused by the secretion of opium on the part of the cultivators.

The practice of purchasing opium in Malwa was continued during the year, but abandoned at its close. Malwa opium is considerably dearer than that produced at the Agencies, and is somewhat less popular. It should therefore be purchased only when the amount required cannot be obtained through the Agencies. Such is not the case at present; for a succession of good seasons has yielded a supply quite as large as is needed, and the produce can, moreover, be increased at pleasure. At the same time, the operations at Malwa indicate how a supply can at any time be obtained should the crop in the districts supervised by the Agencies unfortunately fail; and through the experience now gained in preparing the drug from the Malwa opium, the prejudices against its use are disappearing.

The Board, in conformity with special orders, give particulars as to the number of Mahomedans employed, from which it appears that the complaint made that the members of this community are not admitted in sufficient numbers to the public service does not apply to the Opium Department, in which they have long worked with satisfactory results. The thanks of the Lieutenant-Governor are given to Mr. Cockerell for his efficient supervision of the department on the part of the Board of Revenue. The Behar Agency was carefully administered during the year by Mr. Kemble, and afterwards by Mr. D'Oyly; and Mr. Rivett-Carnac, Agent of Benares, as also Mr. Porter, who officiated in the appointment for three months, rendered valuable services, which are duly acknowledged in the report of the Board of Revenue. Dr. Whitwell's name is favourably mentioned in connection with improvements introduced at the Patna Factory, and special notice is also due to Mr. Girling, who, after hard work as Superintendent of the Saw Mills, had on account of bad health to take leave to Europe. The Lieutenant-Governor is also glad to receive favourable reports of other officers, whose names have been communicated to the Appointment Department.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

P. NOLAN,

Offg. Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL SUMMARY OF THE PROVINCE OF BENGAL FOR THE MONTH OF FEBRUARY 1887.

THE meteorology of the month of February is very interesting, as it is a striking illustration of the after-effects of cold stormy weather and heavy snowfall in the Himalayan districts over the adjacent plain districts. The month of January was unusually stormy in the Sikkim hills. A series of depressions formed in Upper India, each of which passed eastwards into or through Bengal. They all gave stormy weather and snow in the Himalayan area, and, so far as can be judged from the few returns received, the snowfall was exceptionally heavy in the hill districts to the north of Bengal, and the weather unusually cold, gloomy and inclement. The general conditions accompanying the existence of these depressions were still present at the end of January. The barometer was very low, indicating deficiency of pressure over the whole of Bengal and the hill districts; (where it was apparently greatest). The defect at Darjeeling, for the week ending 28th January, averaged $\cdot 17''$, whilst the greatest defect in the plains' districts, for the same period, was $\cdot 12''$, at Calcutta, Gya, and Patna. There was slight indraught from the Bay of Bengal to the area of greatest depression, which gave damp southerly winds to the coast districts of Bengal. The temperature was generally below the average, the deficiency being most marked in the day temperature. The maximum temperature was from 1° (in Orissa) to 7° (in North Behar, and North Bengal and in Sikkim), below the normal temperature of the period; and the minimum night temperature from $1\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ (in Orissa) to 5° (in Sikkim) below the average.

No marked change of weather conditions occurred until the 7th. From the 1st to the 7th, pressure oscillated slightly and somewhat irregularly, but was about $\cdot 12''$ below its normal amount during the whole period. Temperature was below the average, the deficiency being as marked in the night as in the day temperatures. Southerly winds prevailed in South Bengal and Orissa, where the air was, in consequence, unusually damp. Skies were thickly covered with clouds in Sikkim, and more or less clouded in the adjacent plain districts. Showers continued to fall in the Darjeeling, Cooch Behar and Julpigore districts until the 4th.

A rapid change of conditions commenced on the 7th, which was coincident with the clearing of the skies in Sikkim and the establishment of fine weather in the hill districts. All experience shows that the conclusion of a period of stormy weather in the hills, during the cold-weather months, is followed by a period of very cool, dry, pleasant weather in the adjacent plain districts. The present case was no exception. The barometer began to rise on the 7th, and pressure increased rapidly and continuously until the 10th, when the barometer stood higher than on the 7th, by amounts varying from $\cdot 22''$ at Chittagong to $\cdot 33''$ at Calcutta and at several stations nearest to the hills. Temperature decreased steadily until the 10th or 11th; the reduction of temperature was due partly, if not entirely, to the invasion of a body of dry cool air from the hills. It was most marked in the night temperature, and was greatest in the plains' districts nearest to the area of previous heavy snowfall in the hills. Remarkably low temperatures were registered by the minimum thermometers on the night of the 10th in North Bengal. Thus, at Julpigore, the minimum temperature in the shade was 36° , at Rungpore 37° , and at Dinagopore $38\cdot 9^{\circ}$, whilst at Darjeeling it was $21\cdot 3^{\circ}$. The air was also abnormally dry, and lower humidities were recorded at stations in North and East Bengal than have been observed for many years. Thus at Rungpore the humidity fell to 11 per cent. (the average humidity in January being 57), and at Dacca to 22 per cent. (the average being 53 per cent.)

The changes in the weather, described above, were far more marked in North, Central and East Bengal than in Behar. In the latter area, the humidity differed very slightly from the normal humidity of the season, and the temperature, though lower than usual, was higher than in North and Central Bengal. Hence, it is quite certain that the abnormal coolness and dryness of the air at this period in North and East Bengal was not due to the transmission of a cool wave from Upper India, but was a local effect, due to local conditions in that area, or in the adjacent hill districts. Of these two causes, the latter is the only one adequate to explain the effect. The abnormal features of the weather in Bengal, commencing on the 7th of February, were therefore the result of stormy weather and heavy snowfall in the hills to the north of Bengal, and began to be exhibited as soon as fine clear weather was re-established over the hills.

A flow of dry cool air set in from the hills to the adjacent plains, the effects of which were most marked in the submontane districts of North Bengal, and to a slightly less extent over the whole of Bengal.

Just as, at spring tides, very high water (or a very large upward movement of the surface of the sea) is followed by very low water, or by an equally large downward movement, so the large rise of the barometer from the 7th to the 10th was followed by a similarly large fall. This was apparently supplemented by other actions, and the fall in Bengal was one of the largest, longest and most continuous that has occurred for many years in the cold weather. The barometer began to fall on the afternoon of the 10th, and with the exception of a slight general rise on the 13th, and a very slight local rise in North Bengal and Behar on the 24th, it fell continuously to the end of the month. The fall was very slow until the 17th, after which the barometer fell rapidly. The fall averaged $\cdot 2''$ in amount from the 18th to the 25th, and $\cdot 12''$ in amount from the 26th to the 28th, and was as large at Darjeeling as at the plains' stations. The barometer was from $\cdot 38''$ to $5''$ lower at the end of the month than on the 10th. Temperature and humidity began to increase on the 11th, but were considerably below the average for some days. The average rate of increase of the mean daily temperature was very nearly 1° and of the night temperature $\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$. The winds in the coast districts became light and unsteady on the 22nd and 23rd, and on the 24th southerly winds set in, which caused a rapid increase of humidity and temperature in the coast districts, and a smaller increase in the interior. The southerly winds increased rapidly in force, and were blowing strongly at the end of the month towards the area of lowest pressure in North Bengal (and probably Assam). Temperature was normal on the 21st, and after that date up to the end of the month, was above the normal, the excess being chiefly shown in the day temperature, excepting in the coast districts, where it was nearly as marked in the night as in the day temperatures.

It may be noted that the high pressure in Northern India, at this time, gave a strong north-east monsoon over the Bay; and that in the south of the Bay squalls with rain and strong winds were experienced by several vessels.

Pressure—Increased slightly from the 1st to the 4th, and then decreased until the 7th, when it was practically the same in amount as on the 1st. A rapid increase then commenced and continued until the 10th or 11th. It was most marked in North Bengal and Behar, and locally at Calcutta, and was least in East Bengal and varied in amount from $\cdot 22''$ to $\cdot 38''$. The barometer then began to fall, and with the exception of a brief general rise on the 14th and a slight local rise in North Bengal and Behar on the 24th, it fell continuously during the remainder of the month, and, at the end of the month, was from $\cdot 4''$ (in East Bengal) to $\cdot 48''$ in South-West Bengal, Behar and Chutia Nagpur, lower than on the 10th. The barometric movements of the month thus consisted of two oscillations, the second one lasting from the 7th to the 28th and of unusually large amplitude. The mean pressure of the month was almost identical with the normal mean pressure. It was generally slightly in excess, by amounts which in no case exceeded $\cdot 016''$. Hence, as it frequently happens in India, the mean pressure of the month gives little or no indication of the most important features of the fluctuations of the pressure during the month.

Temperature.—The month of February was unusually cool. Temperature was from 3° to 5° below the normal, at the commencement of the month. It increased steadily during the first week, but the change of the weather, initiated on the 7th, caused a remarkable reduction of temperature.

This table shows the effect in different parts of the province of the change initiated on the 7th. A very large reduction of both the day and night temperature followed, averaging about 10° in amount. The largest effect was produced in the Orissa and South-Western Bengal coast districts, where the unusual dryness of the air, produced by the northerly winds, caused a reduction of the night temperature, varying from 20° to 25° in amount.

Temperature gradually but steadily increased from the 11th. The setting in of southerly winds in the coast districts on the 22nd or 23rd caused a rapid rise of the night temperature, in these districts, during the last week. The following data for eight representative stations illustrate the more important features of the temperature during the month:—

The mean temperature of the month was below the average. The defect in South Behar averaged 1° , in North Behar and Chutia Nagpur $1\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$, and in Bengal 2° .

Humidity and rainfall.—The humidity at the commencement and during the last week of the month was above the average, more especially in Behar and North Bengal. A few showers of little importance fell between the 1st and 4th in the Darjeeling, Jubbipore and Cooch Behar districts. The air became very dry after the change of weather on the 7th, and unusually low humidities were registered in Bengal from the 9th and 10th until the 15th and 16th. Over a large part of Bengal, the humidity decreased from 20 to 50 per cent. This change was most marked in North and East Bengal, and to a slightly less extent in the coast districts of South Bengal. The humidities increased from the 11th, at first slowly, and afterwards more rapidly. The change of winds in the coast districts on the 22nd and 23rd, from north to south, caused a rapid increase; a few showers, none of which exceeded eight-tenths of an inch, fell in East Bengal on the 26th. No rain fell in Orissa, Behar and Chutia Nagpur during the month; their normal fall varies from one-half to three-quarters of an inch; North and South-West Bengal practically received no rain. In that area the normal rainfall varies from six-tenths to an inch. East Bengal received an average of $\cdot 15$ inch, barely one-seventh of its normal amount (1.08 inches). The month was hence remarkably dry and practically rainless throughout the whole province.

The following table gives data for several stations illustrating the chief features of the humidity of the air during the month:—

The results of observations at the Alipore Observatory are not rigorously comparable with the registers of past years (at the Park-street Observatory). The barometer is about 3 feet higher at Alipore, and, other things being equal, reads therefore .003 lower. The diurnal range of temperature is also greater at Alipore, and the mean temperature apparently about 2.1° lower; and, finally, the thermometer which furnished the record of temperature at the Surveyor-General's Office during 20 years and upwards, is found to read 0.6 higher than the Kew standard thermometer, which is the standard of reference at the present Observatory.

Explanation. — Summary. — The normal means of air pressure and temperature are the arithmetical averages or means of the reading during the same period for the past years. The humidity of the atmosphere is expressed as a percentage, saturated air being represented by 100. A clear sky is denoted by 0 and an overcast sky by 10. The numerical means or average of the rainfall in that district determined from the returns sent in by the sub divisional stations for the period in question during the month.

the week ending Friday, the 4th March 1887.

CALCUTTA, the 8th March 1887.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 4TH OF MARCH 1887.

THE chief feature of the meteorology of Bengal during the previous week was the large continuous fall of the barometer. This lasted until the 28th, when the barometer was from 28° (in South-East Bengal) to 27° over the greater part of Behar and North Bengal, lower than it was on the 10th of the month. There was hence at the commencement of the week under discussion an area of unusually low pressure in Bengal, which was giving rise to a considerable indraught from the Bay. The southerly winds intensified in the coast districts, and blew quite strongly in East Bengal on the 28th of February, and the 1st and 2nd of March. A few showers fell on the 26th in East Bengal, but it was not until the 1st that the indraught gave rise to fairly general and heavy rain in East Bengal and the greater part of North Bengal. The rainfall commenced in the northern districts of East Bengal on the 1st, and extended to the south-eastern districts (Chittagong, Backergunge, &c.) on the 2nd. The barometer began to rise on the 1st, and continued to rise until the 3rd. The rainfall of the 1st and 2nd cooled the air considerably in East Bengal, and the rise of the barometer was followed by an extension of north-westerly dry winds across South and Central Bengal. Hence a short period of dry, cool, pleasant weather ensued on the 3rd and 4th in Bengal, when the winds shifted back to south and the barometer began again to fall.

The mean pressure for the week has therefore been very considerably below the normal for the period. The mean defect of pressure over the whole province has been equal to a tenth of an inch, while at many stations, such as those in Orissa, South-West Bengal, and South Behar, and at Chittagong, the average defect for the week has considerably exceeded a tenth of an inch. The maximum defect was reported from Gya, where it has equalled $0.135''$. The defect, on the other hand, does not appear to have largely extended to the hill stations, for the pressure at Darjeeling was only $0.022''$ in defect of the normal.

The temperatures registered during the past week have been abnormally high. This is particularly the case with the night or minimum temperatures, which have been generally several degrees higher than the normal. This is shewn in the table below, where the temperature data for eight representative stations in the province are given:—

	Normal mean maximum temperature for the week ending 4th March 1887.	Actual mean maximum temperature for the week ending 4th March 1887.	Variation of actual from normal.	Normal mean minimum temperature for the week ending 4th March 1887.	Actual mean minimum temperature for the week ending 4th March 1887.	Variation of actual from normal. Darjeeling	60.4	55.1	-5.3	39.4	41.9	+2.5	44.9	45.6	+0.7

At some stations such as Purneah the night temperature was nearly seven (6.8) degrees in excess of the normal, while at Calcutta, Dacca, Bankipore and Hazaribagh the excess was larger than four degrees. The day or maximum temperatures have generally not been much in excess of the normal, though on some days some rather high maximum temperatures were reported; thus at Cuttack, on the 2nd and 4th of March, maximum temperature was 98.9° ; at Midnapore, on the 2nd March, temperature was 97.3° , and at Gya, on March 4th, temperature was 93.2° . For the whole week the temperature of the province has been about 2.4° in excess of the normal.

As stated previously, there has been heavy rainfall in East and in parts of North Bengal during the week. The heaviest and most general rainfall was received on March 1st and 2nd, and on the latter day Fenny reported the very large amount of 5 inches. On the 1st, Joydebpore received 3.03 inches and Nowkilla 3.03 inches, while amounts of over 2 inches fell at Ranchauderpore, Mymensingh, Subornakhally, Dewangunge, Serajgunge, Sherpoore and Magura. On the 2nd, Chittagong received 2.52 inches, Brahmanberia 2.6 inches, and the following stations amounts in excess of one inch:—Bhola, Noakholly, Hurrishpore, Ramganj, Comilla and Nasirnagar. The heaviest rainfalls have therefore been confined to the following districts:—Chittagong, Backergunge, Noakholly, Tipperah, Mymensingh, Pubna and Bogra, while parts of the Dacca, Dinagepore and Rangpore districts have also received moderate rain.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the province for the week ending Friday, the 4th of March 1887:—

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph. The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

MEMORANDUM.

DURING the week ending 19th February 1887, the returns from the principal Municipalities in Bengal exhibited the following results :—

1. That the birth-rate in these Municipalities amounted to 19·8 per 1,000 of population against very nearly the same proportion, viz. 20·1 per 1,000, in the preceding week ending 12th February, and the death-rate to 23·3 against 24·8 per 1,000, indicating a falling off in the registration of deaths.

2. That the following Municipalities furnished the highest proportions of births and deaths :—

Births.		Deaths.
	Ratio per mille.		Ratio per mille.
Jessore	42·8	Jessore	49·0
Monghyr	38·9	Serampore	47·1

Serampore	33·4	Gya	36·2
Bhagulpore	31·7	Midnapore	29·4
		Puri	29·4

3. That, as compared with the results of the preceding week, there was a sensible enhancement of mortality from cholera, with a decline, to a more or less extent, in that from the rest of the diseases (excepting small-pox, from which no death was reported), particularly in that from bowel-complaints and the maladies returned under the head of "Other causes":—

Fever	10·2	10·7
Bowel-complaints	3·7	4·8
Injury	·2	·3

4. That excluding small-pox, from which, as before stated, no death was reported to have occurred, and bowel-complaints and injury, the casualties from which do not call for notice, cholera, fever, and "Other causes" proved conspicuously fatal in the following Municipalities :—

A certificate is a document authorising the Collector of Customs to allow the shipment of the opium specified in it within four days from the date of its issue. The duplicate on which the pass is granted will be returned to the shipper to obtain delivery from the opium godown, the original being forwarded to the gate-officer on the wharf to expedite the passing of the opium out of the Custom-house.

13. (1) Save as provided by clause (3) of this rule, on ordinary working days, no treasury receipt in payment of opium, and no pass, will be accepted by the Board after 3-30 P.M., and no certificate will be granted after 4 P.M.

In his report the Intendant shall mention the probable number of chests which will be removed during the evening; and each day, as long as clearances are going on, he shall furnish the Collector of Customs with a similar report.

18. The preventive officer at the ghât shall examine all boat-notes and chests, and see the latter placed in the hold of cargo-boat. He shall then secure and seal, with a distinctive mark, the hatches or other openings or doors of the cargo-boat by which access may be had to the hold, before allowing the boat to proceed to the steamer or ship. He shall also make an entry in the boat-note specifying that the hatches or other openings or doors have been sealed.

19. The preventive officer on board the receiving steamer or ship shall carefully examine the seals affixed to the hatches or other openings or doors of a cargo-boat laden with opium, as soon as the boat arrives alongside the vessel, and shall not allow the seals to be broken in any case until he is prepared to receive the opium on board, and to superintend the removal of the chests from the hold of the cargo-boat.

20. If it appears to the preventive officer on board the receiving vessel that the seals placed on the hatches or other openings or doors of a cargo-boat have been broken in transit, or have been in any way tampered with, he shall immediately bring the matter to the notice of the officer in charge of the vessel, and shall examine each chest carefully. If any theft of opium is discovered, the preventive officer shall make an immediate report to the river-police and to the Collector of Customs, mentioning at the same time the number of the cargo-boat and the name of the owner and manjee.

21. A shipper who removes his chests of opium from the Government premises after 4-30 P.M. shall be required to pay a fee of two rupees for any number of chests up to twenty, three rupees for any number of chests above twenty and up to fifty, and five rupees for any larger number of chests.

22. The fees mentioned in rule 21 shall be realized by the Intendant before delivery of chests to the shippers, and shall be remitted daily by him to the Collector of Customs, and shall form a special fund for the remuneration of preventive officers who may be employed beyond the usual working hours.

23. An application for the delivery of opium chests shall not be received by the Intendant after 9 P.M.

24. When a requisition for the delivery of chests is presented to the Intendant between the hours of 5 P.M. and 9 P.M. on ordinary working days, or between the hours of 2 P.M. and 9 P.M. on Saturdays, he may require the payment of a fee of sixteen rupees in respect of the requisition, and a further fee of two annas in respect of each chest delivered.

(2) If the Collector is satisfied that there is sufficient reason for surrendering a license or permit, he may, with the sanction of the Commissioner, remit the sum so fixed.

Farm of Fees.

37. (1) The Collector may, with the sanction of the Board, let in farm, by public auction or in such other mode as the Board may direct, for a term not exceeding five years, the fees leviable in a district or in a part of a district on licenses for the retail sale of opium or of all or any intoxicating drugs or of poppy-heads.

(2) When the fees so leviable are let in farm, the farmer may, subject to the conditions of his lease, himself sell by retail, and grant licenses, under the countersignature of the Collector, for the retail sale of opium or all or any intoxicating drugs or poppy-heads, as the case may be, within the local limits of his farm :

Provided that neither the farmer, nor a person to whom a license for retail sale has been granted by the farmer, shall sell any opium which has not been supplied from the Collector's office, or any intoxicating drug in the manufacture of which any opium not supplied from the Collector's office has been used.

(3) The farmer shall file in the Collector's office a list of all the licenses granted by him in such form, and on such day or days in each year as the Board may, from time to time, prescribe in this behalf.

41. If a person who has been a farmer or licensed vendor has in his possession, after the expiration of his lease or license, any opium, intoxicating drugs, or poppy-heads which he is unable to dispose of under rule 29, clause (5), he shall, on the requisition of the Collector, surrender the same to such officer as the Collector may appoint in this behalf ; and the person in whose favour the lease or license has been renewed, or, if the lease or license has not been renewed, then any farmer or licensed vendor of the article within the district, shall, on the requisition of the Collector, be bound, under penalty, if the Collector sees fit, of forfeiting his lease or license, to buy the opium, intoxicating drugs, or poppy-heads, as the case may be, at such price as the Collector may adjudge, and in any quantity not exceeding that which the Collector may determine to be ordinarily saleable in two months by the person in whose favour the lease or license has been renewed, or by the farmer or licensed vendor, as the case may be :

Provided that, if the opium, intoxicating drugs, or poppy-heads, or any part thereof, be declared by the Civil Surgeon or other principal medical officer of the district, or, in Calcutta or in the Suburbs of Calcutta, by a Chemical Examiner to the Government, to be unfit for use, the Collector shall cause it or them, or that part, to be destroyed.

7. (1) The bulk of a consignment shall not be broken during transport.

(2) The Collector may make it a condition of the pass that the bulk of the consignment for which the pass is granted shall not be broken until an officer authorized by the Collector in that behalf has examined the consignment at the place specified in the pass as that to which it is to be transported; provided that the examination shall be made within seven days from the date on which the Collector is informed of the arrival of the consignment at that place.

8. If a preventive officer finds, on inspecting the consignment, that the packages are fewer or their contents less (in the case of opium or an intoxicating drug by more than the dryage allowance of one-quarter per cent.) than are specified in the pass, he shall immediately report the result of his inspection to the Collector.

Export of Opium by Sea from Calcutta.

11. Opium may be exported by sea from the port of Calcutta if it has been purchased from the Government at a public sale held by the Board, and is covered by a pass or certificate granted by the Board. A certificate is a document authorising the Collector of Customs to allow the shipment of the opium specified in it within four days from the date of its issue. No pass or certificate for the export of opium will be issued on the same day on which the opium has been sold.

12. Shipping bills for exportation of opium must be printed in red ink and presented at the Custom-house in duplicate, accompanied by a certificate in such form as the Board may direct. The duplicate on which the pass is granted will be returned to the shipper to obtain delivery from the opium godown, the original being forwarded to the gate-officer on the wharf to expedite the passing of the opium out of the Custom-house.

13. (1) Save as provided by clause (3) of this rule, on ordinary working days, no treasury receipt in payment of opium, and no pass, will be accepted by the Board after 3-30 P.M., and no certificate will be granted after 4 P.M.

(2) Save as aforesaid, on Saturdays no receipt or pass will be accepted after 1-30 P.M., and no certificate granted after 2 P.M.

(3) A fee of five rupees will be charged on every pass or certificate which may be required to be granted after 4 P.M. on ordinary days and 2 P.M. on Saturdays.

14. The certificates granted by the Board are to be returned to the Board, duly cancelled, at the close of the month.

15. A fee of five rupees will be charged to a shipper on presentation of shipping bills after 4 P.M. on the day of clearance of the China steamer.

16. Opium intended for export, which is not cleared from the godowns before 4-30 P.M., shall be conveyed to the steamer or ship from the ghât opposite the opium godowns in covered cargo-boats with properly-secured hatches.

17. As soon as the Intendant is aware that clearances will be made after 4-30 P.M., he shall make immediate report to the Collector of Customs, who will at once appoint one or more preventive officers, as may be necessary, to be in attendance at the ghât at which the cargo-boats lie. In his report the Intendant shall mention the probable number of chests which will be removed during the evening; and each day, as long as clearances are going on, he shall furnish the Collector of Customs with a similar report.

18. The preventive officer at the ghât shall examine all boat-notes and chests, and see the latter placed in the hold of cargo-boat. He shall then secure and seal, with a distinctive mark, the hatches or other openings or doors of the cargo-boat by which access may be had to the hold, before allowing the boat to proceed to the steamer or ship. He shall also make an entry in the boat-note specifying that the hatches or other openings or doors have been sealed.

19. The preventive officer on board the receiving steamer or ship shall carefully examine the seals affixed to the hatches or other openings or doors of a cargo-boat laden with opium, as soon as the boat arrives alongside the vessel, and shall not allow the seals to be broken in any case until he is prepared to receive the opium on board, and to superintend the removal of the chests from the hold of the cargo-boat.

20. If it appears to the preventive officer on board the receiving vessel that the seals placed on the hatches or other openings or doors of a cargo-boat have been broken in transit, or have been in any way tampered with, he shall immediately bring the matter to the notice of the officer in charge of the vessel, and shall examine each chest carefully. If any theft of opium is discovered, the preventive officer shall make an immediate report to the river-police and to the Collector of Customs, mentioning at the same time the number of the cargo-boat and the name of the owner and manjee.

21. A shipper who removes his chests of opium from the Government premises after 4-30 P.M. shall be required to pay a fee of two rupees for any number of chests up to twenty, three rupees for any number of chests above twenty and up to fifty, and five rupees for any larger number of chests.

22. The fees mentioned in rule 21 shall be realized by the Intendant before delivery of chests to the shippers, and shall be remitted daily by him to the Collector of Customs and shall form a special fund for the remuneration of preventive officers who may be employed beyond the usual working hours.

23. An application for the delivery of opium chests shall not be received by the Intendant after 9 P.M.

24. When a requisition for the delivery of chests is presented to the Intendant between the hours of 5 P.M. and 9 P.M. on ordinary working days, or between the hours of 2 P.M. and 9 P.M. on Saturdays, he may require the payment of a fee of sixteen rupees in respect of the requisition, and a further fee of two annas in respect of each chest delivered.

25. The procedure described in rules 15 to 22, both inclusive, is enjoined specially in the case of opium cleared from the godowns after 4-30 P.M.; but it may, on application by the shipper to the Intendant, be followed in the case of opium cleared before that time.

I.—The office of the Commissioners for the Inspection of Boilers shall be attached to the office of the Commissioner of Police.

II.—A Boiler Commission shall be appointed to consist of the Commissioner of Police, or the Deputy Commissioner of Police or both, and not less than three other Commissioners to be appointed by Government from time to time; and it shall meet periodically (at least once a month) to arrange for the transaction of business, and one of the Commissioners shall be appointed President.

III.—It shall be the duty of the Commissioners at the monthly meetings—

(1) To examine the diaries of the Inspector and Assistant Inspectors, and pass such orders thereon as may seem necessary.

(2) To revoke or suspend any certificates under section 8.

(3) To hear any appeals preferred by owners of boilers under section 9.

(4) To keep a record of their proceedings in such form as may seem advisable, and submit a copy of the same to the Secretary to Government.

(5) To submit an annual budget to Government, showing the estimates, receipts, and disbursements of the Commission for the ensuing year.

(6) To submit an annual report reviewing the work done by the Boiler establishment during the year.

(10) To compare the statement of collections with the cash-book, and the cash-book with the Bank-book.

(11) To pass such orders as they may think fit for realising or otherwise disposing of the outstandings.

IV.—The Commissioners shall from time to time prepare and submit for the sanction of Government a schedule of the establishment and salaries they consider necessary for the purposes of this Act.

V.—After sanction of such schedule, the Commissioners shall have the power to appoint the Inspector, Assistant Inspectors and clerks, &c., and they shall also have power to suspend or remove such officers. The Inspector shall also be Secretary to the Commission, and he shall attend the office and keep such registers and accounts as the Commission may direct under rule III.

VI.—The Secretary shall be the head of the branch of the office of the Commissioner of Police, which is set apart for the work of the Boiler Commission, and shall be responsible to the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner of Police for the good order and management of the office. He shall see that all notices are duly served, and that all fees are duly brought to account and paid into the Bank. He shall keep in his own custody all forms of certificates, declarations, check receipts, and vouchers. He shall himself verify the balance at credit, shown in the accounts of the Commissioners' office, with the balance in the Bank. He shall refer all matters of importance for the orders of the President.

VII.—Notices under section 6, requiring owners or persons in charge of boilers to make alterations or additions, shall only be given by the Inspector, and when any such notice is given, a copy of the notice served shall at the same time be forwarded by him to each member of the Boiler Commission. IX.—The owner, manager or agent to whom a declaration is given under the last foregoing section shall, within fourteen days after the date of the receipt thereof, send the declaration, together with the amount of the fee named at foot thereof, to the office of the Commissioner of Police.

If he fails to do so, he shall forfeit a sum not exceeding five rupees for every day beyond that period, and the owner, manager or agent shall pay the sum so forfeited on the delivery of the certificate of inspection in addition to the fee payable for the certificate.

X.—Upon receipt of the declaration in the office of the Commissioner of Police, the Secretary shall prepare a certificate in the form prescribed by the Act. Such certificate shall be signed by the Secretary and the Commissioner of Police or Deputy Commissioner of Police, and Provided that, if the boiler is worked under a declaration for any period less than 30 days, the owner, manager, and agent shall nevertheless be liable to pay the same fee as if he had taken out a certificate.

XII.—For every certificate of inspection granted under this Act, the owner, manager or agent of the steam boiler inspected shall pay to the Commissioner of Police a fee calculated on the horse-power of the steam boiler according to the scale laid down in rule XVII; and such additional fee, in respect of the expense (if any) of the journey of the Inspector to the place where the boiler is situated, as is prescribed in rule XVIII.

XIII.—A certificate granted under this Act shall not be in force—

(1) After the expiration of one year from the date thereof, or

(2) After the expiration of the period, if less than one year, for which the boiler and machinery have been stated in the certificate to be sufficient, or

(3) After notice has been given by the Commissioners to the owner, manager or agent of the steam boiler to which the certificate relates that they have cancelled or suspended it.

XIV.—There shall be two kinds of inspection of boilers—

(a)—A thorough examination once every twelve months, inside and outside, to be made by the Inspector or Assistant Inspector in person, for which purpose the boilers must be empty, cool, and clean, and flues swept; and, if required by the Inspector, any parts or settings removed for a complete examination of the boiler in every part.

(b)—An ordinary inspection made at any time when the Inspector has reason to believe the boiler is being improperly worked or that the person in charge is not competent.

XV.—The Inspector shall give one week's notice of every such intended thorough examination; and if after that notice the boilers are not empty, cool, clean, and ready for inspection on the date named, the Inspector shall prohibit the boilers from working, and shall report the case to the Commissioners. Further, if any request be made to remove fittings or settings, and such be not complied with, the Inspector shall in like manner stop the working of the boilers.

XVI.—The Inspector shall submit to the Commissioners at each meeting his report on every boiler inspected in the form of a diary which shall be recorded in the office.

For regulating the conduct of business.

1. An ordinary general meeting of the Municipal Commissioners shall be held once a month on such day and at such hour as may be fixed from time to time by the Commissioners at a meeting.

2. A meeting of the Commissioners, whether ordinary, extraordinary, or special, shall be convened by notice to be served on each Commissioner at least two days before the meeting. A list of business to be brought forward at a meeting, signed by the Chairman or Vice-Chairman, must accompany the notice.

3. Any Commissioner who intends to bring forward any business should give notice of such intention to the Chairman a week before the meeting, whereupon the Chairman or Vice-Chairman shall include such business in the list of business.

4. No subject shall be considered at any meeting unless it appears in the list of business, and the order in which the several subjects shall be taken up shall be determined by their order in the list.

5. The first business in any meeting shall be to read over and confirm, after correcting errors, if any, the minutes of the proceedings of the last meeting. The next business shall be the consideration of any subject that may have been postponed at the last meeting. New subjects shall then be taken up in their order.

6. Any Commissioner shall be at liberty to call the attention of the President to a point of order, even when a Commissioner is addressing the meeting. The President shall decide who shall address the meeting in case of dispute.

After discussion, amendments shall be put to the vote by the President, beginning with that last proposed and ending with that first proposed. If all the amendments are lost the original proposition shall be put to the vote. No member who is not present shall be allowed to vote.

8. Any Commissioner may decline to vote on any subject without assigning his reason for abstaining from doing so.

9. Any subject under consideration may be postponed, or the consideration of it adjourned, either to a fixed date or sine die, or it may be referred to a Committee or to any individual member either for report or for final disposal. Any member of such Committee or such individual member shall be competent to vote on the subject of the report at a general meeting.

10. Unless not less than two-thirds of the Commissioners consent by signing a requisition, no subject once finally disposed of can be reconsidered within twelve months.

11. The minutes of the proceedings of all meetings shall show the name of the President and of all members attending, the original propositions and amendments, if any, and the number of votes for and against each proposition and amendment.

12. All persons employed by the Commissioners, whose services may no longer be required, shall, unless there be some agreement to the contrary, be liable to discharge after receipt of one month's previous notice or pay in advance, and no such person shall withdraw from the duties of his office without having given a like notice on pain of forfeiture of one month's salary.

13. The Commissioners shall have power to inflict, for neglect of duty, a fine not exceeding one month's pay upon any person employed by them.

Every person within whose premises or on whose land any animal may die shall within four hours after its death, or if death occurs at night within two hours after sunrise, either remove at his own expense the carcass to such place as may be set apart for the reception of the carcasses of animals, or report its death to the conservancy overseer or at the municipal office, and in such latter case shall pay to the said overseer the expense of removing the carcass at such rate as the Commissioners may determine; and in cases where the said person is not the owner of the animal, and the owner is known, the owner shall alone be responsible for the payment of such expense, and such expense shall be recoverable as a debt due to the Commissioners. The overseer when called upon shall not neglect to remove the carcass.

22. The Commissioners may give notice to the owner in writing to alter, in such manner as they shall direct, any culvert which may be so constructed as to afford any inconvenience in cleaning the drain underneath; provided that, if such culvert was originally constructed with the permission of the Commissioners, or if it was constructed before Act III (B.O.) of 1864 came into operation in the Municipality, the alteration shall be made at the expense of the Commissioners.

Duties and Powers of District Engineers.

18. The District Engineer will be the officer in immediate charge of all the roads and buildings and other public works, the control of which is vested in a District or Local Board. He will arrange the details of their construction and be responsible for their custody and maintenance in efficient repair so far as the funds placed at his disposal permit. He will keep accurate plans of the land appertaining to all roads and buildings in his charge, and take prompt steps to prevent encroachments.

19. The District Engineer will receive positive orders only from the Chairman of the District Board. The duty of yielding implicit obedience to any orders so received must be clearly understood; but in the interpretation of general instructions he will act upon his own judgment.

20. The Subordinate Engineering staff of a District or Local Board will be under the immediate orders and control of the District Engineer, and all orders to them with reference to work should emanate from, or be issued through, the District Engineer.

21. The District Engineer will be responsible for the accuracy of all reports, plans, designs, specifications and estimates prepared by him, and must attest them by his signature.

22. The District Engineer will pay strict attention to the economical application of all labour and materials used on works in his charge, and will be responsible for preventing the expenditure on any work exceeding the amount of the sanctioned estimate. He should also strive to bring economically into use, on all occasions, the articles procurable in the local markets and the natural products of the district.

23. The District Engineer must exact from his subordinates a correct performance of their duties and give them all proper instructions. He will furnish them with proper working drawings and written instructions as to the execution of any works they may be entrusted with, using additional precautions to prevent errors or accidents at a distance from the head-quarters of the district.

24. The District Engineer will frequently inspect outlying roads and works in progress, and see that the work carried on by his subordinates or contractors is sound and economical. When on tour he will keep a journal in which the distances travelled will be noted. He will also keep note-books in which will be entered daily any particulars with reference to works in progress which may call for remark, the dates of all inspections, the orders issued to subordinates, the check measurements taken, the accounts inspected, and generally any details concerning his duties which may be worthy of remark. These note-books will be considered official records.

25. The District Engineer will be responsible that his accounts are regularly posted from day to day, and are kept in strict accordance with the rules made from time to time under section 138(i) of the Act.

26. On the completion of any work, a completion report shall be submitted by the District Engineer to the Chairman; and any deviation from the design and estimate that may have been made during the construction of the work must be fully explained in it.

Duties and Powers of Inspector of Local Works.

27. The Inspector of Local Works will make frequent tours of inspection in the districts of the Commissioner's division to which he is appointed. He will not only minutely survey and report upon the state of the various works, whether completed or in progress in each district, but will carefully enquire into the system of management prevailing in respect to the preparation and cost of materials, the style of execution, the price of labour, and the rates of work. He will satisfy himself that building or road materials and other resources available in each district are brought into use in the most efficient and economical manner, and that the means of communication, projected or completed, are adapted to the requirements of the traffic.

28. The Inspector of Local Works will also, during his inspections, enquire into and report on the efficiency of the Engineering establishments employed under District or Local Boards.

29. The Inspector of Local Works will also carefully inspect the books of District Engineers and their subordinates and the arrangements and procedure for the primary accounts, and see that they are kept in the manner prescribed.

30. Besides his regular tours of inspection, the Inspector of Local Works will proceed to any place in his division whenever it may be necessary for him to report on any important design or work, or on any serious accident or threatened danger to any works, or on any calamity, actual or anticipated, the remedy for which may appear to be within the range of engineering skill.

31. Detailed reports of all his inspections shall be drawn up by the Inspector of Local Works for the information of the Commissioner, and a copy thereof, so far as may relate to a particular district, shall be forwarded by him to the District or Local Board concerned through the Magistrate of the District.

32. Although the detailed designs and estimates for works will commonly be prepared by District Engineers, the arrangement and general plan of all important works should be concerted with the Inspector of Local Works, who will be responsible for the engineering character of every project that he passes on with his approval. The Inspector of Local Works may, if he see fit, himself prepare the designs for any work in his division. He will communicate freely and personally on all professional matters with District Engineers, and afford them the benefit of his advice in the performance of their duties.

33. The Inspector of Local Works will, in submitting to the Commissioner any reports, plans, estimates or other documents relating to the works of District Boards, invariably state his own opinion as to the suitability of the designs and reasonableness of the rates. He must also check the calculations in detail of all estimates and compare the quantities in the estimates with those shown on the drawings. If projects are sent up by District Boards without proper information, he will return them for such further information as the case may need.

34. The Office of the Inspector of Local Works will be located in the same place as that of the Commissioner of the Division, and he will correspond direct with District Boards regarding all matters in which he exercises powers assigned to him by these rules.

Mode of preparation and submission of plans, designs, specifications, and estimates for works for approval and sanction.

35. All estimates and projects for the construction or repair of buildings, roads, bridges, and other public works undertaken by District and Local Boards shall be classed under one or other of the two heads Repairs or Original Works, and shall be prepared in the forms prescribed in the Public Works Department Code, Volume I, Chapter VII (fifth edition), and submitted for the sanction of the District or Local Board in meeting. Estimates for Repairs shall include all operations required to maintain works in proper condition, and estimates for Original Works all those which do not come under the classification of repairs.

36. The cost of every survey or preliminary operation other than those which can be carried out by the paid district establishment shall be considered to be an "original work," and shall be covered by a sanctioned estimate and aspecific assignment of funds.

37. A revised estimate shall be prepared immediately there is reason to anticipate that an estimate will be exceeded by more than 10 per cent. of its total amount, or where considerable alterations of the original estimate are desired, and it shall be submitted for the approval of the authorities whose sanction would be necessary if it were an original estimate.

38. In the case of all works of importance, the District Engineer shall submit a rough design for the approval of the Inspector of Local Works before preparing the detailed drawings and estimates.

39. All sanctions given by the District or Local Boards shall be formally recorded in their proceedings.

40. Except in case of emergency, or to prevent damage or loss, no work shall be put in hand until an estimate for carrying it out has been sanctioned; and no proposal for the execution of any work shall be sanctioned by a District or Local Board, unless it be accompanied by a properly detailed estimate, and, when necessary, by properly prepared drawings showing fully the work proposed.

41. In the case of the following classes of estimates or projects, the sanction of the District or Local Board shall be provisional only, and subject to the confirmation and approval of the authority indicated:—

- | | |

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT,—BENGAL.

DISTRICT ROAD FUND.

NOTIFICATION No. 91.

The 10th March 1887.

THE annual accounts and reports of the Road Cess Committees of the districts of Cuttack, Pooree, and Balasore, for the cess year 1885-86, together with the remarks thereon of the Commissioner of the Orissa Division, are published for general information.

W. B. BESTIC,

Under-Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal, P. W. Dept.

No. 6, dated Cuttack, the 3rd January 1887.

From—C. W. BOLTON, Esq., Chairman, Road Cess Committee Cuttack,
To—The Commissioner of the Orissa Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit the annual accounts and report of the Cuttack District Road Fund for the cess year 1885-86, together with the detailed accounts of receipts and expenditure, duly examined and passed by the Sub-Committee of audit.

2. The District Committee previously consisted of 18 members; but in consequence of four* of them having been disqualified owing to their absence at six consecutive meetings, the personnel of the Committee was reduced to only 14 members at the close of the year—four official and ten non-official. I will nominate four gentlemen to fill up the vacancies.

3. There were six meetings of the District Committee during the year. The attendance of both official and non-official members was, I think, far from satisfactory.

At two meetings no quorum was obtained, and the average attendance at the other meetings was very small. With the exception of two or three gentlemen, who generally attend, the non-official members appear to take no interest whatever in the proceedings of the Committee. Of the officials, also, the Chairman is the only regular attendant.

4. During the year there were three meetings of the Branch Committee at Jajpur and two at Kendrapara. In all the meetings there was a quorum.

5. The actual receipts brought to the credit of the Fund during the year were Rs. 72,344-5-6, including the grant from Government of Rs. 1,700 on account of contribution towards the cost of joint establishment. The outstanding balance on the 30th September 1886 was Rs. 15,106-11-7. The total expenditure of the year amounted to Rs. 64,611-4-9, including the cost of establishment and minor charges.

6. Original Works.—No new line of communication was opened during the year. Only an extension of two miles of the Machgan road and of the Jobra pilgrim road was budgeted for. The works could not, however, be taken up, as further consultation on the subject with the Public Works Department was considered necessary. The following original works were executed at a cost of Rs. 10,943 :—

(a) Metalling.—Two miles on the Taldunda road.

(b) Bridges.—One timber bridge on the 66th mile of the Chandbali road.

One timber bridge on the 7th mile of the Jajpur-Kendrapara road.

One timber bridge on the 11th mile of the Baruan-Indupur road.

One masonry bridge on the 3rd mile of the Sujang-Sirlo road.

(c) Culvert.—One culvert on the 9th mile of the Machgan road.

One culvert on the 8th mile of the Sonepur road.

(d) Causeways.—One at 10th mile of the Jajpur-Kendrapara road.

(e) Bungalows.—One at Baruan on the Jajpur-Kendrapara road.

(f) Additions to the road cess office.

(g) Closing the north branch of the Prachi river.

7. All the above works were completed at the close of the year, with the exception of the addition to the road cess office building, and a portion of the metalling on the Taldunda road. Of the former, the masonry work was done, but some plastering, wood-work, varnishing and painting could not be finished within the year. The metalling on the Taldunda road could not be completed, because metal could not be brought from the quarries across the Mahanuddi owing to the breach in the anicut at Jobra.

8. Repairs.—All the existing roads, bridges, and bungalows were, as usual, repaired during the year at a cost of Rs. 30,453-15-7. The greater part of the damage done by the cyclone of 1885, as described in paragraph 3 of my last annual report, was repaired as far as the funds at the disposal of the Committee permitted. The roads are now in fair order, and assable for traffic. On the metalled lines repairs were carried out where metal had been accumulated before the breach in the Mahanuddi anicut.

9. It was found necessary during the year to abandon the old bungalow at Patpur on the Banki road, and construct a new one on a higher site beyond the reach of the floods of the Mahanuddi, and funds for the building were procured from savings from other works. The work was put in hand a little before the close of the year, and could not therefore be completed by the end of September.

10. Another bungalow was also taken up and constructed at Baruan on the Jajpur-Kuakhia road. Rupees 548 were at first sanctioned; but this being found insufficient, the original estimate had to be supplemented by Rs. 545, which were chiefly spent on the construction of out-offices.

11. The damage done to the existing bungalows on the Kendrapara and Jagatsingpur sub-divisions, alluded to in paragraph 4 of my last year's report, was also repaired during the year at a cost of Rs. 2,562-6-10. The bungalows are now in good condition.

12. There being a bungalow belonging to the Public Works Department within three quarters of a mile of the road cess bungalow at Jaepur, it was considered unnecessary to keep the latter any longer.

13. In arboriculture satisfactory progress was made in planting out, the total number of trees placed along the road-sides during the year being 7,578. The charges on this account for the maintenance of trees previously planted amounted to Rs. 1,665-1-3.

14. Village roads.—Rupees 4,700 were allotted under the head of village roads, viz., to the Sudder sub-division Rs. 2,000, to the Jajpur sub-division Rs. 1,200, and to the Kendrapara sub-division Rs. 1,500. Three entirely new village roads were constructed, and others were repaired. In the previous year the number of new roads constructed was larger; but nothing more could be done during the year under report. The number of applications for the construction or repair of village roads is very large, and it is impossible to comply with more than a small fraction of them in each year, the funds of the Committee being mainly required for the district roads. The applications have been registered, and they will be dealt with as far as possible in the order of priority, according to the funds available.

15. The District Engineer, Mr. Desgratoulet, has continued to discharge his duties to the satisfaction of the Committee. The office of the Vice-Chairman was held during the year by Baboo Ramakhai Chatterji, Deputy Collector.

16. The office and out-door establishments have worked well. The head clerk is a hard-working and careful officer.

17. A separate report on the state of collections and arrears of cesses has already been submitted from the Collectorate side (vide No. 326, dated 1st November 1886).

18. A copy of the audit certificate of the Sub-Committee is herewith enclosed.

RAMAKHOY CHATTERJEE,
Vice-Chairman.

CUTTACK ROAD CESS OFFICE,
The 28th December 1886.

We, the undermentioned members of the Cuttack Road Cess Sub-Committee do hereby certify that we have examined the annual accounts of the Cuttack Road Cess Committee for the cess year, 1885-86, and found them to be correct.

RAMAKHAI CHATTERJEE,
Vice-Chairman.

KALI PADO BANERJEE, Member.

No. 21, dated Pooree, the 25th January 1887.

From—H. SAVAGE, Esq., Chairman, Road Cess Committee, Pooree,

To—The Commissioner of the Orissa Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit the annual report on the administration of the District Road Fund for the cess year 1885-86, together with a detailed account of receipts and expenditure during the cess year.

* * * * *

8. There is only one Branch Road Cess Committee at Khorda. No meeting of the Branch Committee was held during the year.

4. Village roads.—Rs. 3,018-2-1 has been spent on village road works during the year, and at the close of the year an advance of Rs. 1,639-9-6 was outstanding on account of work in progress.

5. District roads—"Upper Armstrong" road, joining the Armstrong road proper, and the Port flagstaff road in the station Pooree was constructed during the year, partly from the municipal and partly from District Road Fund, and the existing district roads were kept up in fair working order. The funds of the Committee are very limited, and it is impossible to do much in the way of new work in any one year. And as the more new works are executed, the greater is the amount required for repairs; it will not be many years before the extreme limit of new work on the present income will be reached.

6. Tree-planting.—No tree has been planted during the year, but those already planted on the sides of the district roads were taken care of; Rs. 352 was spent during the year on account of charges for establishment entertained for the maintenance of the trees.

7. Inspection bungalows.—Two inspection bungalows—one at Jagadalspur, on the Patnaikiabazar to Khorda road, and the other at Pratap, on the extension of the Balugan and Banpur road—were erected during the year, but not paid for for want of funds. They will be paid for this year (1886-87).

8. Supplying drinking-water.—An experimental well was sunk at Pooree in connection with the project of supplying good drinking water in the municipality of Pooree. Two other pucca wells—one at Jagadalspur, and the other at Pratap—were constructed during the year. But the cost of excavating these wells have not been paid to the contractors for want of funds. It will be paid this year (1886-87).

9. Annual inspection.—The office of the District Road Cess Committee was inspected by the local Examiner in January 1886.

10. The establishment under the District Road Cess Committee have discharged their duties satisfactorily.

11. Road cess was realized during the year under report at the maximum rate of 6 pies in the rupee. The percentage of collection during the year ending 30th September 1886 was 92.6.

Brief report of work done and in progress during the cess year 1885-86.

(1). Patnaikiabazar to Khorda Road.—This road is 22 miles long. One causeway and 35 culverts have been constructed on this road up to the end of the year, and the construction of the remaining culverts were in progress. The road has been partly metalled, viz, first nine miles, and from 16th to 22nd miles. An inspection bungalow and a pucca well at Jagadalspur on the 10th mile of this road have been constructed, but have not yet been paid for.

(2). The extension of the Bulugan and Banpur road to Baghura has been completed, and the road is now open for traffic to a length of 17 miles. The metalling work of a part of the road was in progress during the year. An inspection bungalow and a pucca well at Pratap on the 7th mile of this road have been constructed, but not yet paid for.

(3). The construction of the Upper Armstrong road, joining the Armstrong road the proper with the Port flagstaff road in the station Pooree, has been completed during the year. The expenditure on this work has been partly paid from the municipal fund, and partly from the District Road Fund.

(4). An experimental masonry well in connection with the project of supplying good drinking water in the municipality of Pooree has been sunk in the town of Pooree during the year at a cost of Rs. 1,322 payable from the District Road Fund. The amount could not be paid to the contractor for want of funds during the year.

(5). The existing district roads were kept up in a working order.

(6). No other new works were undertaken by the Committee for want of funds.

PROBHAT CHUNDER CHUNDER,
Vice-Chairman.

No. 252, dated Balasore, the 29th November 1886.

From—T. J. C. GRANT, Esq., Chairman, Balasore Road Cess Committee,
To—The Commissioner of the Orissa Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit the annexed accounts and the following brief report on the administration of the Road Fund of this district for the cess year 1885-86.

2. Original works.—The original works of the year were the widening of the two bridges on the Port Road and the construction of seven culverts on the Soroh to Kupari road. Works to the value of Rs. 1,371-10, as shown in the statements, were executed in 1884-85 in lengthening the port road, for which provision was made in the budget for that year, but which was paid for during the year under report.

3. Repairs.—Almost all the district roads for the repairs of which provision was made in the budget were repaired and kept in a passable order. The system of repairing first the most important roads, mention of which was made in the last year's report, bids fair to answer the wished for objects in the long run, and this belief is strengthened by one year's experience of the state of roads, which have no doubt improved. The management of road No 9 has been transferred during the year from the Executive Engineer of Balasore Division to the Engineer of the Department. The road was kept in passable order.

The members of the Committee cannot afford to pay anything towards remodelling the road from Bhudruck to Chandbally, the cost of which is out of all proportion to the resources of the fund. Further, the Committee do not think that the road will be of very great utility when the coast canal work is complete. If, however, the road be considered in the light of a provincial work, the cost may be met by Government.

4. Arboriculture.—The three nursery gardens that are in existence in this district are kept neat and clean, and the plants therein are preserved with every care and new plants are being grown now. The system adopted by the Committee of planting trees at first on some of the selected and important roads by appointing mallies is working well. The road-side plants already existing are growing in thickness with rich foliage, and new ones are being planted. In order to complete arboricultural works on those roads, a sufficient sum has this year been provided in the budget.

The contractor of the Bahaloga to Talpada road has made his best endeavours in this direction, and has been amply rewarded for his labour.

Bamboo fences have been put up round the small plants on the sides of the town roads in order to save them from being injured by cattle.

5. Village Roads.—The village roads of the Sudder as well as of the Bhudruck sub-division were repaired, but the amount allotted for this purpose in the sub-division could not be paid during the year, owing to non-receipt of bills from the Branch Committee before the close of the year.

7. Committee.—The Sudder and Sub-divisional Committees consist of 17 and 15 members respectively.

8. Attendance of Executive Engineer.—The Executive Engineer of the Balasore Division attended two meetings of the Committee, but the Executive Engineer of the Jajpur-Acquapada Division attended none.

9. Working of the Cess Act IX (B.C.) of 1880.—The Cess Act has been all along and is working smoothly here. Arrears of cess are recovered by aid of the certificate procedure under the Public Demands Recovery Act. There is nothing more worth mentioning under this head.

10. Character of Officers.—Baboo Rasbehari Nayk was cess Deputy Collector for the year, except for the few months at the beginning, when Baboo Kali Podo Mukherji was in charge of that Department. He has proved himself to be a very valuable officer, most painstaking and very intelligent.

Kumar Baikuntha Nath Dé was Vice-Chairman of the Road Cess Committee during the year, except when he went to Calcutta for a few months, during which period the charge was with the Chairman. He has continued to be as zealous and interested in his work as ever, and is simply beyond praise.

Establishment.—Baboo Keshori Mhohon Mookherji was District Engineer of the Committee throughout the last year.

Explanatory sheet to accompany the Road Fund Annual Accounts for 1885-86.

(a). Half salary of the duffry originally provided for under the head "Administration" was transferred to the head "Establishment and Contingencies of the Office of Collection," as his whole salary was charged to that head.

(b). This amount was sanctioned by the Board in their letter No. 50A, dated 1st March 1886, copy received with Commissioner's No. 136C, dated 8th March 1886.

(c). Rupees 2,369-7 was sanctioned by the Board in their No. 1A, dated 5th January 1886, copy received with Commissioner's No. 22C, dated 15th January 1886, for the auditor's establishment, out of which Rs. 973-12 was expended during the cess year 1884-85. The remainder Rs. 1,395-11 was shown as budget grant during this year.

(d). Out of Rs. 560 sanctioned by the Commissioner in No. 72C, dated 8th February 1886, for the publication of notifications under Chapter IV, Part II of Act IX (B.C.) of 1880, as directed by the Board of Revenue in their letter No. 5A, dated 12th January 1885, copy received with Commissioner's No. 20C, dated 23rd January 1885, Rs. 60 was added to the head "Stationery and Printing" on account of price of notifications A and B, and the remainder Rs. 520 was added to this head on account of their cost of publication.

(e). Rupees 450 was sanctioned in Commissioner's No. 370C, dated 14th July 1886, for the service of valuation rolls through the agency of the local canoongoes.

(f). Rupees 42, being the half salary of the duffry attached to the Cess Office, was deducted from this head and added to the head "Establishment and Contingencies of the Office of Collection," as stated in column (a).

(g). The original grant of Rs. 500 had in addition of Rs. 440-7-6, sanctioned in Commissioner's No. 72C and No. 389C, dated 8th February 1886 and 21st July 1886, respectively.

(h). Rupees 4,000 was provided in the budget for 1885-86 on account of lengthening the Port road, but the expenditure made on the road during the year could not be paid before its close, and was therefore paid in the year under review from the general savings of the fund.

(i). The excess expenditure of Rs. 1-2 made on this road is to be met from the general savings of the fund.

(j). The original grant of Rs. 1,400 was supplemented by a sum of Rs. 138-1, sanctioned in Commissioner's No. 435C, dated 13th August 1886, and the excess expenditure (Rs. 62-10-6) represents the advance made to the Executive Engineer, Balasore Division, in previous year, adjusted by work done during the year under report.

(k). Rupees 6,978 was sanctioned as grant-in-aid—vide Government letter No. 234, dated 31st December 1885, copy received with Commissioner's No. 67C, dated 14th January 1886.

(l). The original grant of Rs. 150 was supplemented by a sum of Rs. 91-1, sanctioned in Commissioner's No. 389C, dated 21st July 1886, but Rs. 241-1, shown as expenditure, was solely met from the advance of Rs. 150 made to the Sub-Deputy Collector of Chandbally in previous year, adjusted during the year, and Rs. 91-1 sanctioned by the Commissioner, as stated above, leaving the grant for the year unexpended.

RULE 20.—The President of the meeting may, for reasons to be recorded in writing and entered in the minutes of the proceedings—

(a)—Rule that a motion or amendment is illegal or out of order; and

(b)—Make such alterations in a motion or amendment as shall in his opinion render it legal and in order; and may in case (a) refuse to put the motion or amendment to the meeting, and in case (b) refuse to put the motion or amendment to the meeting unless and until the proposer and seconder accept and sign the alterations so made; and the decision of the President shall be final.

RULE 26.—Any member shall be at liberty to call the attention of the President to a point of order, even when a member is speaking. On a point of order being raised, the member addressing the meeting shall resume his seat until the question has been decided by the President. After the decision of the President, the same point of order cannot be raised again. Except as provided by this rule, no member shall interrupt a speaker in possession of the meeting.

RULE 27.—Except as provided in the last preceding rule, no member shall speak except to move or second a motion or amendment, or to support or oppose a motion or amendment which has been duly moved and seconded.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

WE, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to Civil Courts in Bengal, the North-Western Provinces and Assam was referred, have considered the Bill No. II and the papers noted on the margin, and have now the honour to submit this our further Report.

2. Section 1.—We have intitled the proposed Act the Bengal, North-Western Provinces and Assam Civil Courts Act instead of the Bengal Civil Courts Act.

3. Section 6 (section 7 of Bill as revised by us).—We have proposed that rules respecting the qualifications of persons to be appointed to the office of Munsif shall be made by the Local Government after consultation with the High Court.

4. Section 9 (section 11 of Bill as revised).—We have provided for the re-transfer of proceedings transferred on the vacation of the office of a Subordinate Judge.

5. Section 18 (section 13 of Bill as revised).—We have added a sub-section for the purpose of removing a difficulty in questions of jurisdiction caused by the practice which obtains in Bengal of distributing work among Subordinate Judges and Munsifs according to thánas.

6. Section 20 (section 19 of Bill as revised).—We have empowered the Local Government, on the recommendation of the High Court, to extend the jurisdiction of selected Munsifs to suits of value not exceeding two thousand rupées.

7. Section 26 (section 23 of Bill as revised).—We have added proceedings under the Indian Succession Act, 1865, and the Probate and Administration Act, 1881, to the list of proceedings of which Subordinate Judges and Munsifs may be permitted to take cognizance.

8. Section 28 (section 25 of Bill as revised).—We have raised from Rs. 50 to Rs. 100 the value of the suits which Munsifs may be empowered to try in exercise of the jurisdiction of a Judge of a Court of Small Causes.

9. Section 31 (section 28 of Bill as revised).—We have considered it unnecessary to retain the punishment of degradation among the punishments which the High Court may inflict on Munsifs.

10. Section 11 (section 36 of Bill as revised).—We have, at the request of the Government of Bengal, empowered the Local Government to invest officers belonging to any defined class with the jurisdiction of a Civil Court under the Act. In exercise of this power it will be practicable to invest with the jurisdiction of a Subordinate Judge or Munsif those junior members of the Civil Service who have elected a judicial career.

11. Section 24 (section 38 of Bill as revised).—We have, at the instance of the High Court at Fort William, so modified this section as, when read with section 40 of the Bill as revised, to admit of its applying to Courts of Small Causes.

which the Bill to regulate the supply of electricity for lighting and other purposes was referred, have considered the Bill and the papers noted on the margin, and have now the honour to submit this our Report.

2. The primary object of the Bill is to empower the Governor General in Council to make rules (a) for the protection of person and property from injury by reason of contact with, or the proximity of, appliances or apparatus used in the supply of electricity, and

(b) for preventing telegraph-lines from being injuriously affected by any of those appliances or apparatus.

It appears to us that, in the present state of the electric lighting industry in India, it will suffice to make provision for the attainment of this object. We have therefore removed that portion of the original Bill which related to the grant of licenses, and have substituted in the preamble full warning that control by such or like methods may hereafter be necessary.

3. By section 3 of the Bill as amended by us we propose to require persons dealing in or using electricity to keep the authorities informed of their operations, and in section 4 we reproduce the substance of sections 8 and 9 of the original Bill respecting the making of rules by the Governor General in Council.

4. Section 5 relates to penalties, which we have reduced in amount.

5. By section 6 it is proposed to enable the Government to confer upon its officers, with respect to the placing of appliances, and apparatus for the supply of electricity for any purpose of the Government other than the transmission of messages, the same powers which the telegraph-authority possesses under the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885, with respect to the placing of telegraph lines and posts for the purposes of a telegraph established or maintained by the Government or to be so established or maintained.

6. The publication ordered by the Council has been made as follows :—

CALCUTTA, the 15th March 1887.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 11TH OF MARCH 1887.

DURING the previous week weather conditions had been a little abnormal, and an area of decidedly low pressure had formed in Bengal, which had been attended with moderate to heavy rainfall in East and over parts of North Bengal. This depression, however, filled up, and this was followed by a day or two of more or less north-east monsoon conditions over the greater part of the province. These, however, very rapidly gave way, and at the close of the week hot weather conditions were again replacing them. The principal feature in the meteorology of the present week has therefore been the continued gradual establishment of the hot weather conditions over the province. For the first two or three days the changes were a little irregular; winds were light and variable, and pressure oscillated rather considerably, while temperature for the first day or two rose rapidly and then fell rather suddenly. For the second-half of the week the barometric pressures diminished rapidly, temperatures rose steadily, and the southerly and south-westerly winds blowing at the head of the Bay strengthened very considerably, penetrating over a considerable part of the province, and at the same time brought up much moisture. These southerly winds were decidedly intensified by a very rapid fall of pressure which had taken place over parts of Northern India, and on the last day of the week there was a large area, comprising the Punjab, the Gangetic plain and Chutia Nagpur, where pressure was decidedly low and indeed considerably below the normal pressure for March. For the greater part of the week weather conditions have thus been fairly settled over the greater part of the province, but in Orissa and at some of the eastern stations a few local showers have been reported, accompanying apparently small local storms in several instances. There has, however, been nothing like general rainfall reported in any district as was the case in the previous week.

Pressure—Continues below the normal in all districts, the average defect for the week being decidedly large in South Behar, where at Gya it amounts to no less than 0·137". The defect also equals about a tenth of an inch at such stations as Patna, Durbhunga, Berhampore, and Calcutta, while the general average defect for the week for the whole province has been 0·082".

Temperature—Has again been decidedly above the normal, and the general average excess has been equal to nearly 2°. Maximum temperatures have increased decidedly during the week, and on the 6th and 7th Cuttack registered a maximum temperature of no less than 101·9°, while at Midnapore on the 6th it was 101·3°. The general range of temperature for the week and its variation from the normal temperature for the same period are shown in the case of eight typical selected stations in the table given below:—

With the exception of a few local showers in the Pooree and Cuttack districts of Orissa, in the Tipperah and Mymensingh districts of East Bengal, and in the Dacca Hills district, there has been practically no rainfall during the week.

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, and from observations made at 6h, 10h, 16h and 22h.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

N.B.—In the weekly abstract from 6th to 12th February 1887, read 72.9 for 77.1 as the mean temperature of the 7th, and also read 65.7 for 66.3 as the mean temperature of the seven days.

That births were registered in these Municipalities at the rate of 20 per 1,000 of population, as opposed to very nearly the same proportion, viz. 19·7 per 1,000, during the preceding week ending 19th February, and deaths at 26·1 per 1,000 against 23·1 per 1,000 indicating a considerable improvement in the registration of deaths.

2. That these events were returned in the highest proportions from the following Municipalities:—

Births.		Deaths.
	Ratio per mille.		Ratio per mille.
Comillah	38·5	Serampore	54·9
Monghyr	35·3	Suburbs of Calcutta	40·4
Beaulah	34·2	Gya	39·0
Bhagulpore	30·8	Puri	37·8
		Comillah	31·6
		Bali	31·6

3. That the rates of mortality from the principal diseases, contrasted with the similar information for the preceding week, stood as follows:—

	Ratio per mille during the weeks ending—
	26th February 1887.	19th February 1887.
Cholera	4·3	3·1
Small-pox
Fever	9·4	9·9
Bowel-complaints	4·0	3·7
Injury	5	2
Other causes	7·9	6·2

indicating chiefly that the mortality from cholera, and the maladies returned under the head of "Other causes," had increased to a noticeable extent.

4. That of the abovementioned diseases only cholera and the maladies classed under the head of "Other causes" proved severely fatal in the following Municipalities, small-pox showing no deaths, and the rest of the death-causes no noticeable exacerbations:—

Cholera.		Other causes.

* A special census of the Europeans in the Darjiling Municipality was recently taken, as the census of this section of the community, taken in February 1881, was not reliable owing to the Europeans being at a minimum in that month. The number of the natives remains as before, as it was not necessary to re-census them. The ratios have consequently been calculated on the revised population under all heads in the above table, except "Age," the ratios under which have been omitted, inasmuch as the census of the Europeans above alluded to, cannot be considered as a basis of comparison.

N. ST. L. CARTER,

Traffic Manager.

TRAFFIC MANAGER'S OFFICE, JAMALPUR, the 10th March 1887.

General remarks on the fluctuation of principal staples carried over the East Indian Railway during the month ended 29th January 1887.

INCREASES.

Coal and coke.—There was an increase in the upward despatches due to larger demands from Foreign railways. In the downward traffic there was a decrease reported as consequent on a difficulty in obtaining labour and to some of the mines being still under water.

Other fibres, raw.—The increase was chiefly in hemp consigned from Allahabad to Calcutta for export.

Rice (husked and unhusked).—The increase in earnings was almost entirely in the despatches from stations on the Loop line due to abundant crops, and to there having been a scarcity in Madras and Bombay and in the Central and North-Western Provinces.

Railway Material, Foreign.—This increase was due to despatches for the Indian Midland Railway.

Seeds.—The traffic in linseed showed a large increase, but there was a heavy decrease in indigo seed and seeds of other kinds. The linseed was despatched to Howrah for shipment.

Sugar, refined and unrefined.—The small increase in earnings in proportion to weight may be ascribed to the traffic, being short lead between the Cuddah and Rohilkund and Bombay-Baroda and Central Indian Railways.

DECREASES.

Cotton.—The decrease in the receipts from cotton is exceptional during the current season, and the traffic has since improved.

Piece-goods.—The decrease under this head was due to the up-country markets being dull.

Gunny.—This decrease may be ascribed to ordinary fluctuation of trade.

Fruits, other kinds.—The decrease was chiefly in betel-nuts from Howrah and myrabolams from Jubbulpore line stations.

Gram and Pulses.—There was a decrease in long distance and an increase in short distance traffic.

Other rain and spring crops.—The despatches from North-Western Provinces to Bombay and Jubbulpore were less than during last year.

Hides.—This was due to there being little or no demand in Calcutta.

Brass and copper.—Due to the up-country markets being dull and overstocked.

Iron.—The decrease in earnings may be ascribed almost entirely to the reduced rates introduced in 1886.

Opium.—Due to Government arrangements for despatch of this drug.

Salt.—This decrease is partly attributable to the up-country markets having been overstocked by the heavy despatches from Howrah during previous months.

Government stores.—Due to the Camp of Exercise in 1886.

Wheat.—The decrease was nominal.

The Provincial Boards of Agriculture, Industry and Commerce, the Chambers of Commerce, and generally, all those who may have an interest in this concession, may make known to the Director-General of Customs within thirty days reckoned from the date of the publication of the request of their desires on this subject.

ARTICLE III.

The importers of merchandise, on introducing such articles into the Peninsula and Balearic Islands, shall pay or shall guarantee to pay to the satisfaction of the Administration the duties which, according to the Custom House Tariff, they would have to pay in the state in which they be imported.

ARTICLE IV.

The products obtained by national industry, by alterations or modifications of the merchandise temporarily introduced, can be brought forward, when being exported to foreign countries or to Spanish colonies, or to be stored in one of the general deposits of the country, for a claim of exemption of payment of duties, whether such goods have been amalgamated with other materials or not; but if destined to be deposited, they will be subject to the regulations by which such goods are governed.

ARTICLE V.

If the import duties should have been paid, they will be returned to the importers in due proportion, or else the guarantee will be cancelled, as soon as such goods are exported to a foreign country or to a Spanish colony, and that their arrival at their destination being proved in such manner as may be prescribed, exception being made of such cases when either through shipwreck or other cause the goods have been lost. If the goods are destined for deposit, the cancelling of the guarantee or the repayment of the duty will be made by means of a certificate of its entry in any of the deposits of the Peninsula.

Moreover, after fulfilling these conditions, the duties of whatever description which may have been paid or guaranteed for by the importer of merchandise from the Spanish colonies shall be returned or the guarantee cancelled.

ARTICLE VI.

Imports of a temporary nature will only be allowed to be entered through a first class Custom House, and the export of the goods after they may have been improved or changed must be effected through the same Custom House as that through which they were introduced.

ARTICLE VII.

It must be the same person, firm or company, or the legal representative of it, who will enjoy the benefit and re-export the merchandise.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Government, after hearing, if they think fit, the Tariff and Valuation Board, will establish in each of the concessions it may grant the special rules which are to be applied; and the amount per unit which is to be returned on re-exportation of the goods which have been subjected to either improvement or alteration, taking into consideration the decrease or increase which each class of goods may have undergone by virtue of the industrial processes to which they may have been subjected. They will also determine the period within which goods are to be temporarily imported and re-exported from Spain after having undergone the improvement process. This also applies to goods destined to be deposited previous to their exportation or consumption, and after that period, which is not to be prolonged on any account whatever, the duties which may have been paid on the importation or the guarantee given will go to the benefit of the State.

ARTICLE IX.

The administration of customs will publish, at fixed periods, statistics with regard to the temporary importations which have taken place, enumerating the class and quantity of goods so imported, their origin and locality from whence they came, as well as the places to which such goods may have been re-exported and their destination, and those which may have remained in the country for consumption owing to the re-exportation of them not having taken place within the period granted.

ARTICLE X.

The Minister of Finance is entrusted with the carrying out of the law, and he will take the necessary measures for that purpose.

Rules under Section 4, Act III (B.C.) of 1879, entitled an Act to provide for the Periodical Inspection of Steam-boilers and Prime-movers attached thereto in the Town and Suburbs of Calcutta and in Howrah.

I.—The office of the Commissioners for the Inspection of Boilers shall be attached to the office of the Commissioner of Police.

II.—A Boiler Commission shall be appointed to consist of the Commissioner of Police, or the Deputy Commissioner of Police or both, and not less than three other Commissioners to be appointed by Government from time to time; and it shall meet periodically (at least once a month) to arrange for the transaction of business, and one of the Commissioners shall be appointed President.

III.—It shall be the duty of the Commissioners at the monthly meetings—

(1) To examine the diaries of the Inspector and Assistant Inspectors, and pass such orders thereon as may seem necessary.

(2) To revoke or suspend any certificates under section 8.

(3) To hear any appeals preferred by owners of boilers under section 9.

(4) To keep a record of their proceedings in such form as may seem advisable, and submit a copy of the same to the Secretary to Government.

(5) To submit an annual budget to Government, showing the estimates, receipts, and disbursements of the Commission for the ensuing year.

(6) To submit an annual report reviewing the work done by the Boiler establishment during the year.

(7) To prescribe the registers and accounts which are to be kept up by the Secretary and office.

(8) To cause a statement of demands, collections, and outstandings to be prepared by the Secretary, and to scrutinise the same.

(9) To check the statement of demands, comparing the arrear demand with the statement of outstandings for the previous month, and the current demand with a statement of work done, to be prepared by the Secretary from the diaries of the Inspectors.

(10) To compare the statement of collections with the cash-book, and the cash book with the Bank-book.

(11) To pass such orders as they may think fit for realising or otherwise disposing of the outstandings.

IV.—The Commissioners shall from time to time prepare and submit for the sanction of Government a schedule of the establishment and salaries they consider necessary for the purposes of this Act.

V.—After sanction of such schedule, the Commissioners shall have the power to appoint the Inspector, Assistant Inspectors and clerks, &c., and they shall also have power to suspend or remove such officers. The Inspector shall also be Secretary to the Commission, and he shall attend the office and keep such registers and accounts as the Commission may direct under rule III.

VI.—The Secretary shall be the head of the branch of the office of the Commissioner of Police, which is set apart for the work of the Boiler Commission, and shall be responsible to the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner of Police for the good order and management of the office. He shall see that all notices are duly served, and that all fees are duly brought to account and paid into the Bank. He shall keep in his own custody all forms of certificates, declarations, check receipts, and vouchers. He shall himself verify the balance at credit, shown in the accounts of the Commissioners' office, with the balance in the Bank. He shall refer all matters of importance for the orders of the President.

VII.—Notices under section 6, requiring owners or persons in charge of boilers to make alterations or additions, shall only be given by the Inspector, and when any such notice is given, a copy of the notice served shall at the same time be forwarded by him to each member of the Boiler Commission. When an appeal is heard by the Commission, notice shall be given to the appellant, and any representation that may be made by him will be heard in the presence of the Inspector. The Inspector will also be heard, and local inspection made if necessary. The decision of the Commission will be given in writing, and such decision shall be final.

VIII.—When an inspection under the Act is completed, the Inspector making it shall forthwith, if satisfied that he can with propriety do so, give the owner, manager or agent of the steam boiler inspected a declaration in the form appended hereto.

IX.—The owner, manager or agent to whom a declaration is given under the last foregoing section shall, within fourteen days after the date of the receipt thereof, send the declaration, together with the amount of the fee named at foot thereof, to the office of the Commissioner of Police.

If he fails to do so, he shall forfeit a sum not exceeding five rupees for every day beyond that period, and the owner, manager or agent shall pay the sum so forfeited on the delivery of the certificate of inspection in addition to the fee payable for the certificate.

X.—Upon receipt of the declaration in the office of the Commissioner of Police, the Secretary shall prepare a certificate in the form prescribed by the Act. Such certificate shall be signed by the Secretary and the Commissioner of Police or Deputy Commissioner of Police, and shall be delivered to the owner, manager or agent of the steam boilers inspected, on his paying the fees and other sums (if any) payable under rule IX on delivery of a certificate.

XI.—The declaration given shall have the effect of a certificate for 30 days from the date of inspection under rule VIII, but no longer; and unless the fees and other demands are paid and the certificate taken out within that period, the owner, manager or agent shall be liable to all the penalties prescribed in the Act for using an uncertificated boiler. Provided that, if the boiler is worked under a declaration for any period less than 30 days, the owner, manager, and agent shall nevertheless be liable to pay the same fee as if he had taken out a certificate.

XII.—For every certificate of inspection granted under this Act, the owner, manager or agent of the steam boiler inspected shall pay to the Commissioner of Police a fee calculated on the horse-power of the steam boiler according to the scale laid down in rule XVII; and such additional fee, in respect of the expense (if any) of the journey of the Inspector to the place where the boiler is situated, as is prescribed in rule XVIII.

XIII.—A certificate granted under this Act shall not be in force—

(1) After the expiration of one year from the date thereof, or

(2) After the expiration of the period, if less than one year, for which the boiler and machinery have been stated in the certificate to be sufficient, or

(3) After notice has been given by the Commissioners to the owner, manager or agent of the steam boiler to which the certificate relates that they have cancelled or suspended it.

XIV.—There shall be two kinds of inspection of boilers—

(a)—A thorough examination once every twelve months, inside and outside, to be made by the Inspector or Assistant Inspector in person, for which purpose the boilers must be empty, cool, and clean, and flues swept; and if required by the Inspector, any parts or settings removed for a complete examination of the boiler in every part.

(b)—An ordinary inspection made at any time when the Inspector has reason to believe the boiler is being improperly worked or that the person in charge is not competent.

XV.—The Inspector shall give one week's notice of every such intended thorough examination; and if after that notice the boilers are not empty, cool, clean, and ready for inspection on the date named, the Inspector shall prohibit the boilers from working, and shall report the case to the Commissioners. Further, if any request be made to remove fittings or settings, and such be not complied with, the Inspector shall in like manner stop the working of the boilers.

XVI.—The Inspector shall submit to the Commissioners at each meeting his report on every boiler inspected in the form of a diary which shall be recorded in the office.

NOTIFICATION.

The 19th March 1887.—In accordance with the provisions of section 18, sub-section (1), of the Indian Explosives Act, No. IV of 1884, and with the directions contained in Home Department Notification No. 1437 of the 14th August 1885, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to publish for general information the following draft of rules to regulate the manufacture, possession, and sale of explosives, which he proposes to make under the above Act.

The draft will be taken into consideration on the expiry of one month from the original date of this notification.

F. B. PEAOCK,
Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

DRAFT,

DRAFT RULES UNDER THE EXPLOSIVES ACT, 1884.

PRELIMINARY.

1. For the purposes of these rules, explosives shall be classified as follows, namely :—

Class 1	Gunpowder.
2	Nitrate-mixture.
3	Nitro-compound.
4	Chlorate-mixture.
5	Fulminate.
6	Ammunition.
7	Firework.

And when an explosive falls within the description of more than one class, it shall be deemed to belong exclusively to the latest of the classes within the description of which it falls.

CLASS 1.—Gunpowder Class.

The term “gunpowder” means exclusively gunpowder ordinarily so called.

CLASS 2.—Nitrate-mixture Class.

The term “nitrate-mixture” means any preparation, other than gunpowder ordinarily so called, formed by the mechanical mixture of a nitrate with any form of carbon or with any carbonaceous substance not possessed of explosive properties, whether sulphur be or be not added to such preparation, and whether such preparation be or be not mechanically mixed with any other non-explosive substance.

The nitrate-mixture class comprises such explosives as—

Pyrolithe,
Pudrolithe,
Poudre saxifragine,

and any preparation coming within the above definition.

CLASS 3.—Nitro-compound Class.

The term “nitro-compound” means any chemical compound possessed of explosive properties, or capable of combining with metals to form an explosive compound, which is produced by the chemical action of nitric acid (whether mixed or not with sulphuric acid) or of a nitrate mixed with sulphuric acid upon any carbonaceous substance, whether such compound is mechanically mixed with other substances or not.

The nitro-compound class has two divisions.

Division 1 comprises such explosives as—

Nitro-glycerine,	Dualine,
Dynamite,	Glyoxiline,
Lithofracteur,	Methylic nitrate.

and any chemical compound or mechanically mixed preparation which consists either wholly or partly of nitro-glycerine or of some other liquid nitro-compound.

Division 2 comprises such explosives as—

Gun-cotton, ordinarily so called,	Cotton gunpowder,
Gun-paper,	Schultz's powder,
Xyloidine,	Nitro-maunite,
Gun-sawdust,	Picrates,

and any nitro-compound as before defined, which is not comprised in the first division.

CLASS 4.—Chlorate-mixture Class.

The term “chlorate-mixture” means any explosive containing a chlorate.

The chlorate-mixture class has two divisions.

Division 1 comprises such explosives as—

Horsley's blasting powder,	Brain's blasting powder,

and any chlorate preparation which consists partly of nitro-glycerine or of some other liquid nitro-compound.

Division 2 comprises such explosives as—

Horsley's original blasting powder,	Reichen's blasting charges,
Erhardt's powder,	Tentonite,
Keverley's powder,	Chlorated gun-cotton,
Hochstadter's blasting charges,

Class 5.—Fulminate Class.

The term "fulminate" means any chemical compound or mechanical mixture, whether included in the foregoing classes or not, which, from its great susceptibility to detonation, is suitable for employment in percussion caps or any other appliances for developing detonation, or which, from its extreme sensibility to explosion, and from its great instability (that is to say, readiness to undergo decomposition from very slight exciting causes), is especially dangerous.

This class consists of two divisions.

Division 1 comprises such compounds as the fulminates of silver and of mercury, and preparations of these substances, such as are used in percussion caps, and any preparation consisting of a mixture of a chlorate with phosphorous, or certain descriptions of phosphorous compounds, with or without the addition of carbonaceous matter, and any preparation consisting of a mixture of a chlorate with sulphur, or with a sulphuret, with or without carbonaceous matter.

Division 2 comprises such substances as the chloride and the iodide of nitrogen, fulminating gold and silver, diazobenzol, and the nitrate of diazobenzol.

Class 6.—Ammunition Class.

The term "ammunition" means an explosive of any of the foregoing classes when, enclosed in any case or contrivance, or otherwise adapted or prepared so as to form a cartridge or charge for small arms, cannon, or any other weapon, or for blasting, or to form any safety or other fuze for blasting or for shells, or to form any tube for firing explosives or to form a percussion cap, a detonator, a fog signal, a shell, a torpedo, a war rocket, or other contrivance other than a firework.

The term "percussion cap" does not include a detonator.

The term "detonator" means a capsule or case which is of such strength and construction, and contains an explosive of the fulminate-explosive class in such quantity that the explosion of one capsule or case will communicate the explosion to other like capsules or cases.

The term "safety fuze" means a fuze for blasting which burns and does not explode, and which does not contain its own means of ignition, and which is of such strength and construction and contains an explosive in such quantity that the burning of such fuze will not communicate laterally with other like fuzes.

The expression "safety cartridges" means cartridges for small arms of which the case can be extracted from the small arm after firing, and which are so closed as to prevent any explosion in one cartridge being communicated to other cartridges.

The ammunition class has three divisions.

Division 1 comprises exclusively—

- Safety cartridges.
- Safety fuzes for blasting.
- Railway fog signals.
- Percussion caps.

Division 2 comprises any ammunition as before defined which does not contain its own means of ignition, and is not included in Division 1, such as—

- Cartridges for small-arms, which are not safety cartridges,
- Cartridges and charges for cannon, shells, mines, blasting, or other like purposes,
- Shells and torpedoes containing any explosive,
- Fuzes for blasting, which are not safety fuzes,
- Fuzes for shells,
- Tubes for firing explosives,
- War rockets,

which do not contain their own means of ignition.

Division 3 comprises any ammunition as before defined which contains its own means of ignition, and is not included in division 1, such as—

- Detonators,
- Cartridges for small-arms, which are not safety cartridges,
- Fuzes for blasting, which are not safety fuzes,
- Fuzes for shells,
- Tubes for firing explosives,

which do contain their own means of ignition.

By ammunition containing its own means of ignition is meant ammunition having an arrangement, whether attached to it or forming part of it, which is adapted to explode or fire the same by friction or percussion.

Class 7.—Firework Class.

The term "firework" comprises firework composition and manufactured fireworks.

Division 1.—The term "firework composition" means any chemical compound or mechanically mixed preparation of an explosive or inflammable nature which is used for the purpose of making manufactured fireworks, and is not included in the former classes of explosives, and also any coloured fire composition.

Division 2.—The term “manufactured firework” means any explosive of the foregoing classes and any firework composition, when such explosive or composition is enclosed in any case or contrivance, or is otherwise manufactured so as to form a squib, cracker, serpent, rocket (other than a war-rocket), maroon, star, lance, wheel, Chinese fire, Roman candle, or other article adapted for the production of pyrotechnic effects or pyrotechnic signals.

MANUFACTURE, POSSESSION, AND SALE.

(a) General Rules.

2. An explosive shall not be manufactured except under and in accordance with the conditions of a license to manufacture the explosive granted under these rules.

Nothing in this rule shall apply—

- (a) to the making of a small quantity of an explosive for the purpose of chemical experiment, and not for practical use or for sale; or
- (b) to the filling for private use and not for sale of any safety cartridges to the amount allowed by these rules to be possessed for private use.

Exception.—Nothing in the foregoing portion of the proviso to this rule shall be held to authorise the possession for private use—

- (a) of any explosive of the 5th (fulminate) class; or
- (b) of any explosive whereof the possession has been prohibited absolutely by notification under section 6 of the Act; or
- (c) where the possession of an explosive has by notification under that section been prohibited subject to conditions, of any such explosive except subject to those conditions.

Provided that nothing in any such license shall be deemed to entitle the license-holder to keep at the same time in the place to which the license applies more than 200lbs. of gunpowder, 500lbs. of explosive contained in ammunition of the 1st division of the 6th (ammunition) class, and 200lbs. of fireworks, or any such less quantity of any of these explosives as the licensing officer may direct in this behalf.

13. If any person commits a breach of any condition subject to which a license under rule 12 is granted, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to three thousand rupees.

(d) Licensing of the possession of small quantities of other explosives.

14. Licenses for the possession at such places as shall be approved by the licensing officer of explosives other than those specified in rule 8 shall, if the explosive is not one of the 5th (fulminate) class, and if the quantity to be possessed at the same time does not exceed 60lbs., be granted in a presidency town and its suburbs by the Commissioner of Police, and elsewhere by the District Magistrate.

15. Every license granted under rule 14 shall be in Form D in the schedule hereto annexed, and shall be subject to the conditions prescribed therein. A fee of five rupees shall be paid for every such license.

(e) Licensing of the possession of explosives generally.

17. Licenses for the possession of explosives other than those which may be issued under rules 8 and 14 shall, if the explosive is not one of the 5th (fulminate) class, be granted by the Local Government in accordance with the following procedure:—

(1) The applicant shall submit to the District Magistrate, or, in a presidency town and its suburbs, to the Commissioner of Police, an application in writing accompanied by a plan (drawn to scale) of the place in which it is proposed to keep the explosive (herein referred to as the magazine) and the site thereof.

(2) The application shall specify such of the following matters as are applicable, namely—

(a) the boundaries of the land forming the site of the magazine, and either any belt of land surrounding the site which is to be kept clear, and the buildings and works from which it is to be kept clear, or the distances to be maintained between the magazine, or any part thereof, and other buildings and works;

(b) the situation, character, and construction of all the mounds, buildings, and works on or connected with the magazine, and the distances thereof from each other;

(c) the amount of explosive and of ingredients thereof wholly or partly mixed to be allowed at the same time within the boundaries of the magazine; and

- (d) any especial terms which the applicant may propose by reason of any special circumstances arising from the locality, the situation, or construction of any buildings or works, or the nature of any process or otherwise.

(3) Upon receipt of the said application—

- (a) The District Magistrate or Commissioner of Police, as the case may be, shall thereupon cause notice to be published of the application, and fix a date on which any persons shall be heard objecting to the establishment of a magazine on the proposed site who have not less than seven clear days before the day of hearing sent to the said District Magistrate or Commissioner of Police, and to the applicant notice of their intention to appear and object with their name, address, and calling, and a short statement of the grounds of their objection.

- (f) On the completion of the enquiry, the District Magistrate or Commissioner of Police shall forward the application with his recommendation to the Local Government. The Local Government may thereupon either grant the license applied for either in accordance with the recommendation of the District Magistrate or Commissioner of Police, or with the addition of any additional restrictions and precautions as may be deemed proper, or the Local Government may refuse such license.
- (g) If the Local Government grant a license, it shall forward the same to the District Magistrate or Commissioner of Police, who, when satisfied that the magazine is sufficiently completed according to the license to justify the use thereof, shall confirm the license; but until so confirmed the license shall not come into force.

28. A person licensed to possess an explosive shall not be required to take out a license for the manufacture of the explosive by reason that in a room or workshop in connection with the magazine, or place in which he is licensed to possess the explosive, he, by filling cartridges, making charges, drying, sifting, fitting or otherwise, adapts or prepares the explosive for the keeping of which he is licensed, for use, sale or otherwise : provided that he observes the following rules :—

- (1) There shall not be in the workshop in which such filling, adaptation or preparation is carried on more than 50lb. of gunpowder, or in lieu of such gunpowder or of a less amount thereof, not so present, half that amount of other explosive.
- (2) Any work unconnected with such filling, adaptation or preparation shall not be carried on in the said room or workshop while such filling, adaptation or preparation is being carried on.
- (3) The said room or workshop shall be detached from the magazine or place in which the license is licensed to possess the explosive and at a safe distance therefrom.
- (4) An explosive of one description shall not be converted into an explosive of another description, and shall not be unmade or resolved into its ingredients.

D.—GENERAL.

29. Every license granted under these rules shall be liable to be forfeited on breach on any of the conditions subject to which it is granted.

30. If a person licensed to manufacture, possess, or sell an explosive dies or becomes bankrupt, or becomes mentally incapable or otherwise disabled, the person carrying on the business of such licensee shall not be liable to any penalty or forfeiture under the Act or the rules made thereunder for carrying on the business or acting under the license during such reasonable time as may be necessary to allow him to make an application to the authority granting the license for a new license in his own name during the currency of the unexpired portion of the original license. Such new license shall be granted on the payment of one rupee.

31. The fees leviable under these rules shall be taken in the shape of "impressed stamps." Applications for licenses or renewals of licenses shall, if not otherwise provided, be written on plain paper, the licenses themselves being issued on "impressed stamps" of value equal to the amount of fee leviable in respect of such licenses or renewals.

32. All licenses, except licenses to manufacture an explosive under rule 12, or to possess explosive of the 5th (fulminate) class under rule 21, shall expire on the 31st December of the year for which they are granted. Licenses granted under rules 12, 21 shall be current for the term therein specified. But the currency of a license may, unless the circumstances have so changed that the grant of a new license would either not be authorised under the Act and rules or is deemed objectionable by the licensing authorities, on application previous to its expiration, be renewed, on payment of the original fee.

33. When a license granted in accordance with these rules is lost, or accidentally destroyed, duplicate may be granted to the licensee, on payment of a fee of 8 annas.

34. Any person holding a license, or acting under a license, granted in accordance with these rules, shall be bound to produce the same when called upon to do so by any Magistrate or by any Police Officer in charge of a police-station, or by any Police Officer of higher rank.

35. All Magistrates or other authorities acting under these rules will perform their duties subject to the control of their executive superiors and of the Local Government.

36. Any authority empowered to grant a license under the foregoing rules may, if he thinks fit, direct by an order written on the license that it shall have the effect of a like license under the Indian Arms Act, 1878.

37. Any persons lawfully entitled under the Indian Arms Act, 1878, or the rules made thereunder, to possess any explosive coming under the head of ammunition as defined in that Act may possess, without license under these rules, any such explosive in reasonable quantities for his own private use.

XIV. The Commissioners appointed under section 2 of Bengal Act V of 1870, as amended by Bengal Act VII of 1871 and Bengal Act I of 1881, shall, until Commissioners have been duly appointed and elected under this Act, continue to administer the powers and trusts created and declared by Bengal Act V of 1870, subject to the powers and authorities therein conferred on the Lieutenant-Governor.

Amendment of sections 5 and 12 of Act V (B.C.) of 1870.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE Acts which govern the constitution of the Port Trusts of Bombay and Madras provide for the election of a certain proportion of the total number of Trustees. The Calcutta Port Improvement Act, 1870, contains no such provision; and under it all the Commissioners for the Port must be nominated by the Government. The Lieutenant-Governor has, however, in practice allowed the Chamber of Commerce and the Trades' Association to nominate successors to retiring Commissioners who were representative of those bodies. The object of this Bill is to confirm this privilege by law, and generally to recognize and affirm the elective principle in the constitution of the Calcutta Port Trust.

June, 10th	76	8vo dy	1st ...	612	Printed	0 6 0	Trailokya Nath Sanyal, Circular Road, Calcutta.	It is the author's object in this drama to inculcate the view that true conjugal union means the perfect fusion of the husband and the wife into each other by combining the characteristic defects of their respective natures with their characteristic excellences, the consequent attainment by both of them of the dual nature of the Divine Being in whom Purush and Prakriti are combined, and their complete devotion to the service of God. A considerable portion of the dialogue in this book is of a religious nature, the author's standpoint being that of the Church of Keshab Chandra Sen.	5367

CHOTA NAGPORE RURAL POLICE.

The HON. MR. ALLEN, in presenting the Report of the Select Committee on the Bill for the Regulation of the Rural Police in the Chota Nagpore Division, said—The changes which we have made in the Bill are exceedingly small and the Report speaks for itself. As by the rules for the conduct of business in the Council it is necessary that the Report of the Select Committee should be placed in the hands of members for seven days before the Bill can be proceeded with any further, I have nothing further to say on the subject now.

CHITTAGONG PORT TRUST.

The HON. MR. MACAULAY presented the Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to appoint Commissioners for the Port of Chittagong. He said:—We have not thought it necessary to make any alteration of moment in this Bill, and I shall only now direct attention to two of the amendments made by the Committee. Under section 5 of the Bill as it stood three out of nine Commissioners were to be elected by such “body, bodies, or firms engaged in commerce in the port as the Local Government may from time to time direct.” Under instructions from the Government of India, we have made this direction of the Local Government subject to the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council.

Next, section 14 of the Bill provides, in cases of acquisition of land for the purposes of the Port, for the payment only of the compensation awarded under the Act. It has been pointed out by the Government of India that there are other charges connected with these proceedings, such as stamps and lawyers’ fees, and we have accordingly introduced provisions for regulating them. The Bill has been now before the public for three months, and we have not received any suggestions for its improvement or any objections to it. I therefore propose at the next meeting of the Council to move that the report be taken into consideration with a view to the settlement of the terms of the Bill.

STATEMENT OF THE COURSE OF BUSINESS.

HIS HONOUR THE PRESIDENT said—The Council will now be adjourned to Saturday next, and on that day I hope we shall be able to take into consideration the Bill for the Regulation of the Rural Police in Chota Nagpore, and to pass it into law. We shall also proceed with the consideration of the Bill for the creation of a Port Trust in Chittagong. On next Saturday also the Hon. Mr. Macaulay will introduce the Bill for the amendment of the Calcutta Port Improvement Act, which I hope will be passed before the end of the Session. The only other Bill which remains is the large measure before the Select Committee for the consolidation and amendment of the Municipal Law in Calcutta and the Suburbs. I understand from my friend Sir Henry Harrison that the Report of the Select Committee will be placed before the Council before the close of the present Session, and it will then be laid on the table and published with a view to the final consideration of the Bill at the commencement of the next Session of the Council in November next.

LIBERALITY OF SRIMOTI SOBHA KUMARI THAKURANI, A ZEMINDAR OF MOUZAH GARTOPA IN MANBHOOM.

No. 1360, dated Calcutta, the 21st March 1887.

From—R. H. WILSON, Esq., Offg. Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Municipal Department,

To—The Commissioner of the Chota Nagpore Division.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your memorandum No. 851J,

* 1. Letter from the Deputy Commissioner of Manbhoom, dated the 21st February 1887.

2. An English translation of a deed of gift dated the 7th February 1887, executed by Srimoti Sobha Kumari Thakurani.

dated the 6th instant, with which you submit a copy of the papers* mentioned in the margin regarding the free gift, by Srimoti Sobha Kumari Thakurani, a zemindar of mouzah Gartopa, in Manbhoom, for the support of the charitable dispensary at Govindpore in commemoration of Her Majesty's Jubilee. The dispensary, it is stated, is a very useful institution, but the subscriptions for its maintenance have been hitherto small and irregularly paid. The gift in question will ensure a permanent income of at least Rs. 20 a month in support of the dispensary, as the present value of the mouzah is about Rs. 3,600, and the rental is said to be capable of increase.

2. In reply, I am directed to request that you will be good enough to convey to the donor the Lieutenant-Governor's thanks for the liberality and public spirit displayed by her. I am to add that this letter will be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

LIBERALITY OF SRIMOTI BINDU BASHINI CHOWDHURANI OF SANTOSH IN THE DISTRICT OF MYMENSINGH.

No. 1357, dated Calcutta, the 21st March 1887.

From—R. H. WILSON, Esq., Offg. Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Municipal Department,

To—The Commissioner of the Dacca Division.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 391J, dated the 7th instant, in which you report that Srimoti Bindu Bashini Chowdhurani of Santosh, in the district of Mymensingh, has given a sum of Rs. 8,000 for the erection of a masonry building for the Tangail Dispensary which was founded by her late husband Babu Dwarka Nath Chowdhuri. You state further that the foundation stone of the building was laid on the 16th ultimo, the day fixed for the celebration of Her Majesty's Jubilee, and that the lady has requested that the dispensary may be called the "Dwarka Nath Jubilee Dispensary."

2. In reply, I am directed to request that you will be good enough to convey to Srimoti Bindu Bashini Chowdhurani the thanks of the Lieutenant-Governor for her liberality and public spirit. The Lieutenant-Governor accepts the proposal to name the dispensary as the "Dwarka Nath Jubilee Dispensary." I am to add that this letter will be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

Explanation.—Summary.—The normal means of air pressure and temperature are the arithmetical averages or means of the readings during the same period for the past 10 years. The humidity of the atmosphere is expressed as a percentage, saturated air being represented by 100. A clear sky is denoted by 0 and an overcast sky by 10. The number in the district column in returns divided by the number of stations. A rainy day is one on which at least hundredth of an inch fell.

* Mean for 6 days.

CALCUTTA, the 18th March 1887.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 18TH OF MARCH 1887.

THE barometer at the end of the preceding week was unusually low, and strong south-west humid winds were blowing across the Bengal coast into South and East Bengal. Temperature was high and considerably above the average over the greater part of the province, and the air unusually damp. These conditions gave rise to a disturbed state of the atmosphere, which, as is usual in the hot weather months, was shown by the occurrence of a series of thunder-storms accompanied with more or less heavy rain over the greater part of the province. They began in Eastern Bengal on Saturday, and extended to North Bengal and North Behar on Sunday, but the rainfall on these two days was comparatively small in amount. The barometer had risen steadily during this period (i.e. from Saturday to Monday morning), but a rapid fall occurred during the next 24 hours, which varied very considerably in amount in different parts of the province, as is usually the case during disturbed weather in the hot weather months. Thunder-storms occurred on Monday evening over the greater part of East Bengal, North Bengal, the central and northern districts of South-West Bengal, and in Behar. Rainfalls varying from one to two inches were received at a large number of stations. The Moorshedabad district, for example, received an average of one and a half inches and the Rajshahye district of one inch. These were the centres of heaviest rainfall of the 14th. The barometer began to rise on the morning of the 15th. Thunder-storms occurred on the evening of that day in Orissa, South-West Bengal, and in some parts of East Bengal; but the rainfall was much smaller in amount than on the 14th and more local and variable in its distribution. The disturbance terminated on the 16th with a small series of thunder-storms giving moderate rain in the south-eastern districts of East Bengal. On the 15th and 16th winds began to change in character. Westerly dry winds recommenced in Behar and gradually extended eastwards over Bengal. Hence the air became gradually drier, and the night temperature was considerably reduced. At the end of the week, fine clear dry weather with comparatively low night temperatures prevailed throughout the province.

The barometer rose gradually on the 12th and 13th. A rapid fall varying from $\cdot 07''$ to $\cdot 13''$ in amount occurred during the 24 hours preceding 10 A.M. of the 15th. The barometer then rose gradually and stood at the same height at the end of the week as on the 14th before the rapid fall which accompanied the series of thunder-storms which occurred in almost every part of the province on the evening of that day. The variations of the mean pressure of the week from the normal mean differ considerably in different parts of the province. Pressure was slightly in excess in East and Central Bengal, and in defect elsewhere. The deficiency was greatest at Darjeeling ($\cdot 05''$), Gya ($\cdot 04''$) and Calcutta ($\cdot 03''$).

Temperature—Was unusually high at the commencement of the week. The excess was most marked in the night temperatures, which at some stations were as much as 6° to 10° above the normal. A rapid decrease of temperature occurred on the 16th and 18th which was coincident with an equally rapid decrease of the humidity of the air. Thus at Dinagepore the minimum temperature on the 14th was $68\cdot 1^{\circ}$, and on the 18th $56\cdot 7^{\circ}$; at Rungpore $69\cdot 1^{\circ}$ on the 15th, and $51\cdot 9^{\circ}$ on the 18th; and at Motihari 67° on the 13th, and $52\cdot 6^{\circ}$ on the 18th. The decrease was much less in the coast districts. The mean maximum temperature of the week was from 1° to 3° below the average at the great majority of stations, and the mean minimum temperature, from 1° to 4° above the normal. The mean temperature of the week was $1\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ in excess in Chutia Nagpur, 1° in South-West Bengal, and 1° in defect in East Bengal. In the other divisions the mean temperature of the week was approximately normal, although the variations of temperature were unusually large. The following table gives temperature data for eight representative stations:—

The rainfall of the week was considerably above the average. Showers, local in character, were received in East and North Bengal and North Behar on the 12th and 13th.

Thunderstorms with moderate to heavy rain occurred in nearly every district on the 14th. Orissa, South-West Bengal and portions of East Bengal received light to moderate showers on the 15th, and East Bengal only on the 16th. The Pubna district received an average rainfall during the week of 2·08 inches, Moorshedabad an average of 1·51 inches, and Rajshahye, Commillah, and Dacca, average amounts slightly exceeding one inch. These districts hence represent the areas of greatest disturbance during the week. East Bengal received an average of ·68 inch, North Bengal ·54 inch, South-West Bengal ·47 inch, South Behar ·34 inch, and Orissa ·37 inch. In these divisions the average rainfall was from two to four-tenths in excess of the normal average. In Chatia Nagpur and North Behar the rainfall was less than a tenth of an inch and practically nil.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the province for the week ending Friday, the 18th of March 1887:—

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

MEMORANDUM.

THE principal Municipalities in Bengal returned, during the week ending 5th March 1887, the birth and death-rates of 18·5 and 23·8 per 1,000 of population, respectively, as opposed to 20·3 and 25·9 per 1,000 in the preceding week ending 26th February, indicating a retrogression in the registration of both births and deaths.

2. These events were returned in the highest proportions by the following Municipalities :—

			Beaulcah	...	44·6
			Naraingunge	...	33·1

3. Referring to the specific diseases, there was a sensible abatement in the mortality from the maladies returned under the head of "Other Causes"; but the fatal results from the other diseases exhibited very small reductions, excepting cholera and small-pox, the death-rates from the former being stationary, and the latter causing deaths in the Serampore, Chupra, Monghyr and Patna Municipalities, after being absent from all the Municipalities for weeks past :—

REASONS FOR INCREASE AND DECREASE.

INCREASES

In coal and coke are owing to increased requirements of the Locomotive Department and the public.

In hotel-nuts, cotton, cotton manufactured, jute, hides, metals and manufactures, provisions, salt, wood and firewood, and miscellaneous are owing to public appreciation of facilities afforded by railway route as compared with that by boats.

DECREASES

In grain and pulse and rice are owing to these descriptions of traffic being carried on by boats which are more convenient to grain merchants, as they have godowns on the riverside.

In railway material are owing to less demands of the Engineering and Locomotive Departments.

GENERAL REMARKS AND EXPLANATIONS.

The total weight of traffic carried during the month under review stands at 27,376'66 tons against 24,380'58 tons carried during the corresponding period of 1885, the net increase being 2,996'08 tons or 12'29 per cent.

INCREASES.

Cotton piece-goods 460'57 tons.
 With the approach of the cold weather demand from the local markets set in.
 Ginger 8'37 tons.
 There has been a steady increase under this head for some months past due to a good crop and fair demand for export.
 Gunny bags 394'63 tons.
 The increase represents 55 per cent due, it is believed, to fair prices that ruled during the month.
 Grain and pulses 118'11 tons.
 Due to increased despatches from Sara, Nattore, and Madhnagar.
 Intoxicating drugs 4'31 tons.
 The increase is expected in the face of the falling off during last month.
 Jute 4,006'14 tons.
 There have been increased despatches of this staple from Haldibari, Domar, Nelphamari, Daroani, Rungpore and Kaunia during the month under notice due to a fairly good demand in Calcutta.
 Liquor 43'93 tons.
 The increase seems to be a trade fluctuation and is likely to be met by a falling off later on.
 Miscellaneous 70'24 tons.
 The traffic under this head comprises so many different commodities that it is difficult to give any definite explanation of an increase or decrease. There was falling off of 102'42 tons last month, and the present increase is to a certain extent attributable to this fact.
 Oil 17'56 tons.
 This increase more than covers the falling off during last month.
 Rice 550'28 tons.
 The remarks made under this head in October last hold good in the present instance also.
 Sugar 22'10 tons.
 The increase is not large enough to need any special notice.
 Twist 29'35 tons.
 There was increased demand for this article in the local markets.
 Tea 223'25 tons.
 There was it appears, from the Chamber of Commerce price current, a brisk demand for all teas with strength and quality, and these descriptions sold readily at full rates.
 Timber 68'41 tons.
 A large quantity of sal ballies was despatched during the month from Siliguri and Shikarpur.

DECREASES.

Coal 1,276'08 tons.
 A large quantity of locomotive coal passed over the line during the last month to which the present decrease is attributable.
 Cotton 27'22 tons.
 The demand for this article fell off during the month.
 Hides 2'86 tons.
 The decrease is small and needs no explanation.
 Metals 119'33 tons.
 The traffic under this head shows a falling off of 84 per cent.
 Paddy 1,121'42 tons.
 The remark made under this head in last month's report also applies to this month.
 Railway material 168'84 tons.
 The increased despatches during last month will explain the present falling off.
 Salt 4'78 tons.
 The decrease is small and needs no remarks.
 Seed 90'76 tons.
 The market continues dull.
 Tobacco 209'88 tons.
 Exports to Burmah have fallen off.
 RESOLVED that the above statement be recorded.

DRAFT.

DRAFT RULES UNDER THE EXPLOSIVES ACT, 1884.

PRELIMINARY.

1. For the purposes of these rules, explosives shall be classified as follows, namely :—

Class 1	Gunpowder.
" 2	Nitrate-mixture.
" 3	Nitro-compound.
" 4	Chlorate-mixture.
" 5	Fulminate.
" 6	Ammunition.
" 7	Firework.

And when an explosive falls within the description of more than one class, it shall be deemed to belong exclusively to the latest of the classes within the description of which it falls.

CLASS 1.—Gunpowder Class.

The term "gunpowder" means exclusively gunpowder ordinarily so called.

CLASS 2.—Nitrate-mixture Class.

The term "nitrate-mixture" means any preparation, other than gunpowder ordinarily so called, formed by the mechanical mixture of a nitrate with any form of carbon or with any carbonaceous substance not possessed of explosive properties, whether sulphur be or be not added to such preparation, and whether such preparation be or be not mechanically mixed with any other non-explosive substance.

The nitrate-mixture class comprises such explosives as—

Pyrolithe,
Pudrolithe,
Poudre saxifragine,

and any preparation coming within the above definition.

CLASS 3.—Nitro-compound Class.

The term "nitro-compound" means any chemical compound possessed of explosive properties, or capable of combining with metals to form an explosive compound, which is produced by the chemical action of nitric acid (whether mixed or not with sulphuric acid) or of a nitrate mixed with sulphuric acid upon any carbonaceous substance, whether such compound is mechanically mixed with other substances or not.

The nitro-compound class has two divisions.

Division 1 comprises such explosives as—

Nitro-glycerine,	Dualine,
Dynamite,	Glyoxiline,
Lithofracteur,	Methylic nitrate,

and any chemical compound or mechanically mixed preparation which consists either wholly or partly of nitro-glycerine or of some other liquid nitro-compound.

Division 2 comprises such explosives as—

Gun-cotton, ordinarily so called,	Cotton gunpowder,
Gun-paper,	Schultz's powder,
Xyloidine,	Nitro-maunite,
Gun-sawdust,	Picrates,

and any nitro-compound as before defined, which is not comprised in the first division.

CLASS 4.—Chlorate-mixture Class.

The term "chlorate-mixture" means any explosive containing a chlorate.

The chlorate-mixture class has two divisions.

Division 1 comprises such explosives as—

Horsley's blasting powder,	Brain's blasting powder,

and any chlorate preparation which consists partly of nitro-glycerine or of some other liquid nitro-compound.

Division 2 comprises such explosives as—

Horsley's original blasting powder,	Reichen's blasting charges,
Erhardt's powder,	Teutonite,
Keverley's powder,	Chlorated gun-cotton,
Hochstadter's blasting charges,

CLASS 5.—Fulminate Class.

The term "fulminate" means any chemical compound or mechanical mixture, whether included in the foregoing classes or not, which, from its great susceptibility to detonation, is suitable for employment in percussion caps or any other appliances for developing detonation, or which, from its extreme sensibility to explosion, and from its great instability (that is to say, readiness to undergo decomposition from very slight exciting causes), is especially dangerous.

This class consists of two divisions.

Division 1 comprises such compounds as the fulminates of silver and of mercury, and preparations of these substances, such as are used in percussion caps, and any preparation consisting of a mixture of a chlorate with phosphorous, or certain descriptions of phosphorous compounds, with or without the addition of carbonaceous matter, and any preparation consisting of a mixture of a chlorate with sulphur, or with a sulphuret, with or without carbonaceous matter.

Division 2 comprises such substances as the chloride and the iodide of nitrogen, fulminating gold and silver, diazobenzol, and the nitrate of diazobenzol.

CLASS 6.—Ammunition Class.

The term "ammunition" means an explosive of any of the foregoing classes when, enclosed in any case or contrivance, or otherwise adapted or prepared so as to form a cartridge or charge for small arms, cannon, or any other weapon, or for blasting, or to form any safety or other fuze for blasting or for shells, or to form any tube for firing explosives or to form a percussion cap, a detonator, a fog signal, a shell, a torpedo, a war rocket, or other contrivance other than a firework.

The term "percussion cap" does not include a detonator.

The term "detonator" means a capsule or case which is of such strength and construction, and contains an explosive of the fulminate-explosive class in such quantity that the explosion of one capsule or case will communicate the explosion to other like capsules or cases.

The term "safety fuze" means a fuze for blasting which burns and does not explode, and which does not contain its own means of ignition, and which is of such strength and construction and contains an explosive in such quantity that the burning of such fuze will not communicate laterally with other like fuzes.

The expression "safety cartridges" means cartridges for small arms of which the case can be extracted from the small arm after firing, and which are so closed as to prevent any explosion in one cartridge being communicated to other cartridges.

The ammunition class has three divisions.

Division 1 comprises exclusively—

- Safety cartridges.
- Safety fuzes for blasting.
- Railway fog signals.
- Percussion caps.

Division 2 comprises any ammunition as before defined which does not contain its own means of ignition, and is not included in Division 1, such as—

- Cartridges for small-arms, which are not safety cartridges,
- Cartridges and charges for cannon, shells, mines, blasting, or other like purposes,
- Shells and torpedoes containing any explosive,
- Fuzes for blasting, which are not safety fuzes,
- Fuzes for shells,
- Tubes for firing explosives,
- War rockets,

which do not contain their own means of ignition.

Division 3 comprises any ammunition as before defined which contains its own means of ignition, and is not included in division 1, such as—

- Detonators,
- Cartridges for small-arms, which are not safety cartridges,
- Fuzes for blasting, which are not safety fuzes,
- Fuzes for shells,
- Tubes for firing explosives,

which do contain their own means of ignition.

By ammunition containing its own means of ignition is meant ammunition having an arrangement, whether attached to it or forming part of it, which is adapted to explode or fire the same by friction or percussion.

CLASS 7.—Firework Class.

The term "firework" comprises firework composition and manufactured fireworks.

Division 1.—The term "firework composition" means any chemical compound or mechanically mixed preparation of an explosive or inflammable nature which is used for the purpose of making manufactured fireworks, and is not included in the former classes of explosives, and also any coloured fire composition.

Division 2.—The term “manufactured firework” means any explosive of the foregoing classes and any firework composition, when such explosive or composition is enclosed in any case or contrivance, or is otherwise manufactured so as to form a squib, cracker, serpent, rocket (other than a war-rocket), maroon, star, lance, wheel, Chinese fire, Roman candle, or other article adapted for the production of pyrotechnic effects or pyrotechnic signals.

MANUFACTURE, POSSESSION, AND SALE.

(a) General Rules.

2. An explosive shall not be manufactured except under and in accordance with the conditions of a license to manufacture the explosive granted under these rules.

Nothing in this rule shall apply—

Exception.—Nothing in the foregoing portion of the proviso to this rule shall be held to authorise the possession for private use—

- (a) of any explosive of the 5th (fulminate) class; or
- (b) of any explosive whereof the possession has been prohibited absolutely by notification under section 6 of the Act; or
- (c) where the possession of an explosive has by notification under that section been prohibited subject to conditions, of any such explosive except subject to those conditions.
- (2) to the possession of an unlimited quantity of fireworks, if obtained and intended for immediate use and not for sale, and if kept for a period not exceeding 14 days in a safe and suitable place, and with all due precautions for the public safety;

33. When a license granted in accordance with these rules is lost, or accidentally destroyed, duplicate may be granted to the licensee, on payment of a fee of 8 annas.

34. Any person holding a license, or acting under a license, granted in accordance with these rules, shall be bound to produce the same when called upon to do so by any Magistrate or by any Police Officer in charge of a police-station, or by any Police Officer of higher rank.

Proceedings of the Council of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations.

Saturday, the 19th March 1887.

Present :

The HON. SIR RIVERS THOMPSON, K.C.S.I., Lieut.-Govr. of Bengal, President.
 The HON. G. C. PAUL, C.I.E., Advocate-General.
 The HON. H. J. REYNOLDS, C.S.I.
 The HON. C. P. L. MACAULAY, C.I.E.
 The HON. T. T. ALLEN.
 The HON. SIR HENRY HARRISON.
 The HON. SIR ALFRED CROFT, C.I.E.
 The HON. MOULVIE ABDUL JUBBAR.
 The HON. G. IRVING.
 The HON. D. CRUICKSHANK.
 The HON. KALI NATH MITTER, and
 The HON. DR. MAHENDRA LAL SIRCAR, C.I.E.

CHITTAGONG PORT TRUST.

The HON. MR MACAULAY, in moving that the report of the Select Committee on the Bill to appoint Commissioners for the Port of Chittagong be taken into consideration in order to the settlement of the clauses of the Bill, said that, with His Honour's permission, he would combine the first two motions which stood in his name. He had the honour to invite the attention of the Council to an oversight which had occurred in the draft Bill and which required amendment. It would be observed that the main body of the Bill had been taken from the Indian Act XV of 1879, the Rangoon Port Trust Act, because it was understood that the circumstances of the Port of Chittagong would more closely resemble those of Rangoon than those of the larger ports of Calcutta and Bombay. At the same time the constitution of the body of the Port Commissioners of Chittagong was framed more upon the lines of the Acts applying to the larger ports. Now the section relating to the disqualification of Commissioners was taken from the Bombay Act, which contained a saving clause regarding a particular Commissioner being interested in the loans of the Commissioners; while section 73 was taken from the Rangoon Act, which, for reasons which he did not understand, rendered a Commissioner who lent money to the Commissioners at large liable to disqualification and to fine. The Council must take either the two sections of the Bombay Act or the two sections of the Rangoon Act. He believed the Council would think it desirable to follow the lines of the Bombay Act, which permitted Commissioners to invest in the debentures of the Port Trust, and he would therefore ask for leave to move a provision in substitution of section 73 to the above effect.

The motion was put and agreed to.

The HON. MR. MACAULAY moved that the following section be substituted for section 73 of the Bill:—

“Any Commissioner or servant of the Commissioners, who shall acquire, directly or indirectly, any share or interest in any contract or employment with, by, or on behalf of, the Commissioners, shall be deemed to have committed the offence made punishable by section 168 of the Indian Penal Code:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to a person—

- (a) having a share in any Joint-Stock Company which shall contract with, or be employed by, or on behalf of, the Commissioners; or
- (b) having a share or interest in any newspaper in which any advertisement relating to the affairs of the Commissioners may be inserted; or
- (c) interested in any loan of money to the Commissioners.”

HIS HONOR THE PRESIDENT said, hon. members would observe that the Bill, as it stood in section 73, conflicted with the terms of section 8, which referred to the disqualification from office of Commissioners. The amendment which had just been moved would be substituted for section 73, and would bring it into harmony with the provisions of section 8. It was therefore necessary that section 73, as it stood, should be altered.

The amendment was then put and agreed to.

CHOTA NAGPUR RURAL POLICE.

The HON. MR. ALLEN moved that the Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to provide for the regulation of the Rural Police in Chota Nagpur be taken into consideration in order to the settlement of the clauses of the Bill. He said on the last occasion that he considered it unnecessary to detail the changes which had been made by the Select Committee in the original form of the Bill as they were exceedingly few. The district of Manbhum had been exempted from the operation of the Bill until it should be included therein by a notification of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal. In the section providing for distraint of property plough-cattle and agricultural implements were exempted, and in accordance with a suggestion of the Government of India, a clause had been added to section 8 which allowed of the appointment of a punchayet in villages where the materials for the appointment of such punchayets were to be found. In section 32, which forbade the chaukidar abandoning his post without previous notice, a penalty had been provided, also in accordance with a suggestion of the Government of India, and the penalty was the same as that provided in Act V of 1861 and Act XV of 1870 for the regulation of the village police in the North-Western Provinces. Substantially, the Act would remain as it was originally passed in 1878, with these few exceptions.

The motion was put and agreed to.

The HON. DR. MAHENDRA LAL SIRCAR moved that to section 6 the following clause be added:—“If any zemindar or tenure-holder is dissatisfied with such determination, he may appeal, within thirty days therefrom, to the Commissioner, who shall pass such orders as to him seems proper.” He explained that this addition was analogous to the clause in section 25 of the Bill, which gave a right of appeal from the order of the Deputy Commissioner declaring what zemindars or tenure-holders were liable for the maintenance of road patrols. If an appeal was to be allowed in such cases, he thought that an appeal should also be allowed from an order determining the amount to be paid for maintaining the village police.

THE HON. THE ADVOCATE-GENERAL apprehended that there could hardly be any question to be heard in appeal in a question of this sort. It did not require the safeguard of an appeal.

THE HON. MR. MACAULAY would go further and say that such questions as would probably arise in appeal under this section might be exceedingly inconvenient. An appeal might go into the question of the number of chaukidars which should be employed, and of the grouping of villages, of which the Commissioner might have no knowledge whatever.

HIS HONOR THE PRESIDENT said he would like to know what remedy a man brought under this liability would have if he contested it.

THE HON. MR. ALLEN observed that the force of the amendment lay in this : If a zemindar or under-tenure-holder was dissatisfied with the determination of the Deputy Commissioner, he should appeal to the Commissioner; but by the preceding section the matters for the Deputy Commissioner to determine were the number of village policemen and the pay of each. The only questions upon which he could appeal, therefore, were as to the number of village policemen to be appointed in each village, and the pay which they should receive; and the bill provided limits in both these cases. The discretion of the Deputy Commissioner was almost completely taken away. He could not give a pay of more than Rs. 4, or less than Rs. 2, per mensem, and he could not appoint for a particular village more than the number of policemen which the law allowed, and he must determine the assessment according to the number of houses in each village. Moreover, every act of the Deputy Commissioner was subject to the control and orders of the Commissioner, and it required no provision of law to make his orders subject to such control. Probably the hon. member thought that by the introduction of this clause the liability of a zemindar or under-tenure-holder to police service would be open to appeal, but the amendment did not provide for that.

The motion was by leave withdrawn.

THE HON. DR. MAHENDRA LAL SIRCAR moved that in section 8, paragraph 1, the words "a Board consisting of" be inserted after "thereupon," and the words "and the headman of the village or any other person appointed by the Deputy Commissioner," after "belongs." The object of this amendment, he said, was to associate with the tehsildar some one, preferably a headman, if such an one was available, in the business of assessment, and thus to minimise the evils of taxation when the tax-gatherer himself was the assessor.

THE HON. MR. ALLEN said he was unable to accept this amendment. The hon. member was anxious to provide a Board, but what the Board was to do after it was formed was nowhere said. The other sections of the Act knew nothing of a Board. They provided for the appointment of tehsildars and other officers, but a Board was unknown. This amendment would have no other effect than to call into existence a Board which would have no functions. The hon. member was apparently not acquainted with the circumstances of the villages of Chota Nagpur. It was the difficulty of getting intelligent headmen in the villages that had necessitated a change in the law of 1878. It would probably surprise the hon. member to hear that the headmen, where they even nominally existed, were not Hindus at all, but aborigines, and the Council could well understand what sort of a Board there would be consisting of a Bengali or a Behari tehsildar and a Kol manki. The amount of work they would get through would be exceedingly small, and to attempt to work the provisions of the Act relating to the assessment of the tax by such a Board would be something like attempting to plough a khet with a buffalo and a camel attached to the yoke. The amendment appeared to him to have been brought forward without sufficient knowledge and consideration of the circumstances which applied to the case.

HIS HONOR THE PRESIDENT said it would be noticed that the action taken by the Select Committee on the Bill was to introduce a system of punchayets where it was possible to do so, and where the intelligence of the residents led them to think that it would be to their interest that a punchayet should be appointed. The provisions of the section fully provided for that. His Honor thought sufficient provision had been made for an enlarged system of working the Bill. For himself, he was not inclined to support the amendment.

The motion was put and negatived.

THE HON. DR. MAHENDRA LAL SIRCAR moved that the following clause be added to section 13:—"Each circle tehsildar shall give security, the amount of which shall be determined by the Deputy Commissioner." He said that as the collection of money would be entrusted to circle tehsildars, they should be required to give security.

MR. ALLEN considered it quite unnecessary to provide by law for the taking of security, as the Deputy Commissioner could do so by executive action if it was found desirable.

THE HON. THE ADVOCATE-GENERAL remarked that the object of the amendment was to ensure the employment of trustworthy persons—a duty which he thought might safely be left to the discretion of the proper authorities.

THE HON. MR. REYNOLDS pointed out that the taking of security from revenue officers was regulated by rule, and he thought it was more convenient that it should be so regulated.

HIS HONOR THE PRESIDENT observed that there was nothing in the Bill to prevent the Deputy Commissioner requiring some form of security to be taken if in any place the collections made under the Act were large.

The motion was put and negatived.

THE HON. DR. MAHENDRA LAL SIRCAR moved that in section 16, line 2, the words "warrant in" be inserted before "writing." The object was to make it clear that there should be a warrant.

THE HON. MR. ALLEN explained that the order for distraint provided in section 16 was not to be a warrant for the distraint of the property of a particular individual, but a general authority to distraint the property of a number of defaulters. He did not think the amendment would make the intention clearer.

The motion was put and negatived.

THE HON. DR. MAHENDRA LAL SIRCAR moved that in section 22, clause 1, line 3, the word "jurisdiction" be substituted for "limits." He pointed out that the word used in clause 3 of the same section was "jurisdiction," and not "limits," and he moved this amendment simply for the sake of uniformity.

THE HON. MR. ALLEN said that of all the amendments of which notice had been given, this was the most objectionable. It was dangerous to meddle with the words used by a draftsman in an Act, and he never ventured to do so without the fear that the drafter had some precedent behind him. The word jurisdiction could in no correct sense apply to the police: a judge had jurisdiction, a policeman had not; and throughout the Criminal Procedure Code the word "limits" was used in connection with police stations. Although the Council had been charged with corrupting the people of Bengal by its excise legislation, they must stop somewhere and not corrupt the English language.

HIS HONOR THE PRESIDENT said he thought attention had been very properly directed to the diversity of language in the Bill; and following the precedent of the Criminal Procedure Code, which was authoritative on the subject, he would be induced to support the use of the word "limits" throughout the Bill instead of "jurisdiction."

The motion having been by leave withdrawn—

THE HON. MR. ALLEN moved that throughout the Bill the word "limits" be substituted for "jurisdiction" when used in connection with a police station. In this way the language of the Bill would be brought into conformity with the language of the Criminal Procedure Code, which must regulate the language of legislation on cognate subjects.

The motion was put and agreed to.

The HON. DR. MAHENDRA LAL SIRCAR moved that to section 30, clause 2, the following words be added: "and shall forthwith take the person so arrested to the police station within whose limits he acts as road patrol." He said that the clause as it stood authorized the arrest of certain persons, but made no provision as to what was to be done after arrest: a policeman ought to know what he should do after arresting a person. The amendment simply repeated the procedure on arrest as given in section 23.

The HON. MR. ALLEN said it certainly did seem strange that while section 23 contained a provision imposing upon a village policeman the duty of immediately carrying the person whom he arrested to a police station, a similar obligation should not be imposed on a road patrol, and he could give no explanation of the omission, except that sections 59 and 60 of the Criminal Procedure Code required all private persons and police officers who arrested any person to take him forthwith to a police station. Why the same sections were not considered sufficient to ensure a village police officer carrying the person arrested to the thana it was difficult to say. He had, however, no objection to this amendment.

The motion was put and agreed to.

The HON. DR. MAHENDRA LAL SIRCAR moved that in section 32, paragraph 2, line 10, the word "fine" be substituted for "penalty." This, he said, was apparently a mere verbal amendment. But as the word "penalty" included imprisonment, and as the word "imprisonment" was used in the next line, as if separated from "penalty," he thought it would be better to substitute the word "fine" for the word "penalty."

After some conversation, the motion was put and agreed to.

MOULVIE ABDUL JUBBAR asked permission to move an amendment in section 5, paragraph 3. He thought the expression "the value of the chakran lands" did not indicate sufficiently clearly that it was to be the "annual" value. He would insert the word "annual" before the word "value."

The HON. MR. ALLEN considered that the word "value" covered annual value or any other value.

The HON. SIR HENRY HARRISON thought that if any change should be made, it ought to be made by the insertion of the word "monthly," and not "annual."

The motion was put and negatived.

The HON. MR. ALLEN postponed the motion, which stood in his name, that the Bill as amended be passed.

CALCUTTA PORT TRUST.

The HON. MR. MACAULAY introduced the Bill to amend the Calcutta Port Improvement Act, 1870, and moved that it be read in Council. He said he obtained the permission of the Council to introduce this Bill on the 23rd of December last, and the delay which had occurred was due to the observance of certain formalities which had been prescribed by the Secretary of State. At the time he introduced the Bill he stated that its scope would be confined to the amendment of the constitution of the Port Trust, and that the details would be explained hereafter. Hon. members would observe that practically the only important section of the Bill was section 4. By that section it was provided that five of the Commissioners should be elected—four by the Chamber of Commerce, and one by the Calcutta Trades' Association—and that the remaining eight should be appointed by the Local Government, with the proviso that at least two of the total number should be natives of India, resident in the town or suburbs of Calcutta. There might possibly be a discussion as to the extent to which an endeavour should be made to give further representation to railway and other special local interests, but this he thought might be left for consideration by the Select Committee. He had observed that the scope of the Bill had been entirely confined to the object of recognising by legislation that there should be the elective principle in the constitution of the Port Trust. He mentioned this because, at the last moment, a proposal had been received from the Port Commissioners to introduce a clause providing for pensions to be given to their servants. That was a large question, which required much consideration. Moreover, to take it up now would involve serious delay in view of the forms which the Council had to observe. It was practically a new departure from the existing Act, and the introduction of a new Bill. He thought it was desirable that, if such a measure should be considered, it should take the form of a new Bill, which need not interfere with the passing of the present one.

The motion was put and agreed to.

The HON. MR. MACAULAY moved that the Bill be referred to a Select Committee consisting of the HON. MR. ALLEN, the HON. MR. IRVING, the HON. BABU KALI NATH MITTER, the HON. DR. MAHENDRA LAL SIRCAR, and the Mover, with instructions to report in one week.

HIS HONOR THE PRESIDENT said he was sorry the Council would not have the help of the HON. MR. CRUICKSHANK, who represented the mercantile interests, in the consideration of this Bill, as he was to leave Calcutta that day. Under these circumstances, they would not be able to have his services on the Committee on this Bill; but His Honor had no doubt that the Select Committee which had been nominated would give the Bill the fullest consideration in view of the particular interests which were involved.

The motion was put and agreed to.

CHITTAGONG PORT TRUST.

The HON. MR. MACAULAY moved that the Bill to appoint Commissioners for the Port of Chittagong, as settled in Council, be passed. He said:—In laying this motion before the Council he would merely inform them that from the time when he first had the honour of addressing the Council on the subject, he had constantly increasing evidence of the necessity for this measure. Recently he was informed by Mr. Lyall, the Commissioner of Chittagong, that no less than four ships were unable to proceed to sea because there was no tug to take them out, and two of these ships, in attempting to get out without steam, had gone aground, and another had to employ the mail steamer to tow her out. Then, again, Mr. Lyall had submitted an official report on a series of complaints made by Messrs. Ralli and Company of the great inconveniences to which the shipping were put by not only the absence of tugs, but the want of proper lighting of the approaches to the port. All these inconveniences would be removed by the operation of the Act which he now asked the Council to pass.

The motion was agreed to and the Bill passed.

CHOTA NAGPORE RURAL POLICE.

The HON. MR. ALLEN said that before proceeding with the motion which stood in his name, he wished to remove a misapprehension which occurred on the last occasion, which perhaps his remarks had given rise to. In speaking of the impossibility of appointing a Board for the assessment and collection of the chaukidari tax, he mentioned the incongruity of a Hindu tehsildar and a Kol manki sitting together. He had assumed a knowledge of Chota Nagpore on the part of members, which apparently was absent, and his remark was therefore misunderstood; and he took this opportunity of saying that the manki he referred to had nothing whatever to do with the wild animal which lived in the jungles. It was the name used in every Larka Kol village for the headman. It was the same word which was found in the Sonthal Pergunnahs, pronounced as manji, and which, in accordance with the phonetic laws that governed the interchange of words in these two languages, was changed from manji to manki. He now moved that the Bill for the Regulation of the Rural Police in the Chota Nagpore Division, as settled in Council, be passed.

The motion was agreed to, and the Bill passed.

CALCUTTA PORT TRUST.

The HON. MR. MACAULAY, in presenting the report of the Select Committee on the Bill to amend the Calcutta Port Improvement Act, 1870, said that he proposed, with His Honor the President's permission, to reserve any remarks which he had to make upon this Bill until the next meeting of the Council, when he would propose that the report be taken into consideration, the terms of the Bill be settled, and the Bill as amended be passed.

The Council was adjourned to Saturday, the 2nd April 1887.

STATE SCHOLARSHIPS TENABLE IN ENGLAND BY NATIVES OF INDIA.

The 29th March 1887.—The following Resolution by the Government of India in the Home Department, Education, is published for general information :—

Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

No. 1—57-69, dated Calcutta, the 11th March 1887.

READ again the undermentioned papers on the subject of the creation of certain Government scholarships tenable in England by natives of India :—

Home Department Resolution Nos. 1—45-57 and 9—269-281, dated 12th February and 23rd August 1886, respectively.

Despatch to Her Majesty's Secretary of State, No. 7, dated 11th September 1886.

Despatch from the Secretary of State, No. 128, dated 16th December 1886.

BY Home Department Resolution, dated 12th February 1886, cited in the preamble, it was announced that six State scholarships of the value of £200 each per annum, tenable for three years in England by persons who are natives of India within the meaning of section 6 of the Statute 33 Vic., Cap. 3, would be placed at the disposal of the Universities of Calcutta, Bombay, Madras, and the Punjab in rotation, one scholarship being given to each of the first two Universities during 1886, and one scholarship to each of the last two during 1887. The Government of India at the same time directed that, in the event of any special examinations being considered necessary for the election of scholars, the examinations should be held at such a time (not later than the month of June in each year) as would afford the successful candidates a sufficient interval to complete their arrangements and to reach England before the opening of the October term at the University of Oxford or Cambridge, to one of which Universities the scholarship-holders would be required to proceed. The Government of India subsequently announced, with the approval of Her Majesty's Secretary of State, that the stipend of each scholarship-holder would be paid quarterly at the end of each quarter, and it was further directed that the scholars should be instructed to report themselves to the India Office on arrival in England.

2. One scholarship was last year placed at the disposal of each of the Universities of Calcutta and Bombay. It appears that the scholar selected by the latter University, although he arrived in England in time for the October term, did not report himself at the India Office until the very latest moment, viz. the 12th of October, while the candidate selected by the former University was, owing to unavoidable causes, unable to proceed to England in time for the October term. Both the scholars, moreover, arrived in England without any formal papers for the India Office. In bringing these facts to the notice of the Government of India, Her Majesty's Secretary of State has pointed out that in future candidates selected for the scholarships in question should report themselves at the India Office before the commencement of the October term. His Lordship also considers it very important that details as to the manner in which the scholars were selected, as to the probable date of their arrival in England, and as to the choice of studies and University should reach the India Office before they arrive. The Governor-General in Council desires that the Punjab Government and the Registrar of the Calcutta University will invariably arrange that this information may be supplied to the Government of India in time to enable it to comply with the requirements of the Secretary of State in the matter.

In the case of scholars selected by the Universities at Madras and Bombay, the necessary report to the India Office should be made by the Local Governments.

3. As the payment of the scholarship allowance in monthly instalments and in advance is likely to prove more convenient to the scholars, and to be in other respects preferable to quarterly payments, Her Majesty's Secretary of State has directed its adoption as a rule.

4. In conclusion, the Governor-General in Council deems it expedient to point out that, while the scholarship allowance of £200 a year is sufficient to cover the necessary expenses of college life at Oxford or Cambridge, it is very desirable, if not absolutely necessary, that the scholars should have some small private resources of their own to enable them to meet expenses in the vacation and other general expenses which are scarcely avoidable. His Excellency in Council wishes this to be clearly explained to every candidate for the scholarship, and desires Local Governments to bring prominently to the notice of all institutions interested in the matter the fact that it is impossible for the holders of these scholarships to live with comfort in England without some private resources wherewith to supplement their scholarship allowance.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Governments of Madras, Bombay, and the Punjab for information and communication to the authorities of the Universities concerned.

Ordered also that a copy be forwarded to the Governments of Bengal and the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, the Chief Commissioners of the Central Provinces, Burma, Assam and Coorg, and the Resident at Hyderabad, for information; and to the Registrar of the Calcutta University for information and guidance.

Ordered further that a copy be forwarded to the Department of Finance for information, and that the Resolution be published in the Supplement to the Gazette of India.

2. The receipts from railway traffic during the last 10 years are analysed in the following statement:—

The receipts for 1885-86 were Rs. 64,085 more than those of the previous year, the increase being mainly in goods traffic. This indicates a volume of traffic more nearly corresponding to that of 1883-84, in which year the receipts reached their highest point. The receipts from local traffic were Rs. 12,385 above the amount realized from that source during the previous year, owing to the bridge tolls having been leased out from the 1st March 1885 at Rs. 1,651 a month more than the amount paid by the lessees in 1884-85.

3. The arrear payments due on account of the outstanding debt were made during the year. The balance of the original debt remaining unpaid at the close of the year was Rs. 9,33,333, and the reserve fund invested in Government securities amounted to Rs. 5,55,973. There was a cash balance of Rs. 4,21,563, and stock to the value of Rs. 1,08,761 has been provided as a reserve in case of an accident happening to the bridge. A further sum of Rs. 23,587 is invested for the reserve section. The question of the amount to be set aside for the reserve fund has recently been under the consideration of the Government in communication with the Commissioners, and it has been decided to fix it at Rs. 5,50,000, together with the stock valued at Rs. 1,08,761 provided for one section of the bridge. Adjusting the accounts on this basis the bridge debt will be redeemed in 1887-88.

4. The net revenue to the end of the year under review has amounted to Rs. 26,21,131, and the following statement shows how this amount has been appropriated :—

	To end of 1884-85. Rs.	In 1885-86. Rs.	Total. Rs.

Balance	4,20,894
Total	26,21,131

6. No sea-going vessels collided with the bridge during the year. There were 130 collisions of other vessels, but none of them were of a serious nature. No lives were lost, nor was any serious damage caused to the bridge.

7. The bridge was maintained in good order throughout the year, and the whole of the machinery and gearing connected with the moveable section for the centre opening is in good repair and thoroughly efficient. The total cost of repairs and renewals was as follows :—

	Rs.
Repairs ...	45,125
Renewals ...	7,609
Total ...	52,734

but of this sum Rs. 36,822 only were paid during 1885-86, the balance having been paid this year.

8. The expenditure on account of renewals was chiefly incurred in paying bills for work done against sanctioned estimates in the previous year, but as the amount was over Rs. 2,000, under section XXI of Act XI (B.C.) of 1871, and section LII of Act V (B.C.) of 1870, the formal sanction of the Government should have been obtained in order to render the expenditure regular.

9. As the accounts showed that the condition of the bridge fund was such as to justify a reduction of tolls, the Commissioners, in December 1885, appointed a Committee to report on the question. The Committee's report was submitted by the Commissioners to the Government in January 1886, with a recommendation that the local tolls should be entirely abolished. The Lieutenant-Governor, however, while recognizing the financial position of the bridge fund to be perfectly sound, was not satisfied that it had been clearly established that it was expedient to abolish these tolls. The Commissioners were reminded of the circumstances connected with the imposition of the railway terminal charges, and informed that the opinion of the Government of India would be obtained and measures taken to ascertain the views of the Chamber of Commerce and others interested; and that, if the result of these enquiries went to prove that the proposal would meet with the acceptance of those interested in the matter, the Lieutenant-Governor was prepared to undertake the necessary legislation by a special meeting of the Council in the middle of the year.

10. A brief abstract of the opinions received on the proposal is subjoined:—

The East Indian Railway Company approved of the abolition of the local tolls on condition that wheat should at the same time be exempted from payment of the terminal charge levied on goods carried on the railway.

The Government of India, seeing that the two parties most interested—the Port Commissioners and the East Indian Railway Company—were in favour of the abolition of the local tolls, had no objection to the adoption of the proposal.

The Howrah Municipal Commissioners were of opinion that the tolls on local traffic should be abolished.

The Calcutta Trades' Association considered that custom had now reconciled the public to the railway terminal charges, and that there was practically no inconvenience resulting from them. They therefore thought that the local tolls should be abolished, and the terminal charges retained to meet the cost of the up-keep of the bridge in the future.

The Municipal Commissioners of Calcutta came to the conclusion that, as funds were so urgently needed for the improvement of the town, and especially for improving the roadway near the bridge, and, if possible, constructing a new street, and as an amount equal to these tolls could not be raised in any other way with less inconvenience, it was unadvisable to abandon a source of revenue which, they thought, was legitimate, and to which the persons using the bridge had become accustomed. They therefore recommended that, as soon as the debt on the bridge was paid off, the proceeds of the toll should be equitably divided between Calcutta and Howrah, and the receipts made over to the municipalities to be spent in public improvements.

The Chamber of Commerce considered that the proposal to abolish the local tolls was objectionable in every way and opposed alike to fairness, the interests of the trade of the port, and to public opinion. It referred to the strong position taken up by it in 1871, when the Act authorizing the construction of the bridge was being passed through Council, and from which it had never receded; and said that the anticipation of Sir George Campbell, that the mercantile community might hereafter see things in a different light, and find the system of railway terminal charges to be an easier and more convenient mode of charge than the taking of tolls upon the bridge, had not in any way been justified. The Chamber further stated that in making the proposal the Port Commissioners were not in any way in accord with the opinion of the mercantile community, which opinion was, and still is, that terminal charges on all goods are objectionable when levied for the benefit of such a work as the Howrah Bridge.

11. The replies received from those consulted were forwarded to the Port Commissioners in July last, and they were asked to report the conclusion they might come to as to the expediency of proceeding with the proposal or abandoning it. They were also asked to give their opinion with regard to the proposal of the East Indian Railway Company that wheat should now be exempted from toll. The Commissioners' answer was received in August. They recommended the immediate abolition of the terminal charge on wheat, on the understanding that the Chamber of Commerce would accept that arrangement as satisfying the present requirements of the trade of the port, and they adhered to the recommendations made in their former report, and requested that proceedings might be taken to amend the Act so as to give the Lieutenant-Governor power to abolish local tolls whenever it might be considered practicable to do so.

On this the Chamber of Commerce, after consultation with the Calcutta Wheat and Seeds Trade Association, expressed its approval of the immediate abolition of the terminal charge on wheat, but, as regards the local tolls, it saw no reason for departing from the position already indicated. It was admitted that considerable inconvenience was caused by the collection of these tolls, but that inconvenience might, it was said, be dealt with as a detail of management, and did not furnish any real and sound argument for throwing the cost of the up-keep of the bridge upon goods which did not pass over it. The Chamber saw no objection to the Act being amended in the sense suggested by the Port Commissioners, but it could only concur in the abolition of the local tolls on the understanding that the largest possible measure of relief was first afforded to goods which now bear a heavy terminal charge.

12. The whole subject then had the careful consideration of the Government of Bengal, and in view of the opinions expressed by the Chamber of Commerce, and the circumstances connected with the original imposition of the terminal charges, it was decided to allow matters to remain as they are for the present year. When the bridge debt is paid off, it will be obligatory on the Government to take steps to reduce the tolls to such a point that they will just suffice, and no more, to cover the annual charges for maintenance. The debt will be redeemed next year, and the Jubilee railway bridge at Hooghly will then have been open some time for traffic, and may have an important influence on the question.

13. On this decision being communicated to the Commissioners, they recommended that the proposal to exempt wheat from payment of the railway terminal charge should be sanctioned without reference to the other suggestions put forward, and this the Lieutenant-Governor has agreed to. Wheat will therefore be exempted from the first of April next.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Bridge Commissioners for information.

Ordered also that this Resolution be published in the Supplement to the Calcutta Gazette for general information.

Explanation. Summary.—The normal means of air pressure and temperature are the arithmetical averages or means of the reading during the same period for the past 40 years. The humidity of the atmosphere is expressed as a percentage, saturated air being represented by 100. A clear sky is denoted by 0 and an overcast sky by 10. The normal means of the rainfall in that district determined from the returns sent in by the sub-divisional stations for the period in question during the past 40 years. A rainy day is one on which at least hundredth of an inch fell.

* Means for 5 days

for the week ending Friday, the 25th March 1887.

CALCUTTA, the 29th March 1887.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL FOR THE WEEK ENDING FRIDAY, THE 25TH OF MARCH 1887.

THE weather throughout the province during the past week was fine and skies clear, and was hence characterized by the absence of any disturbance. During the previous week a series of thunderstorms occurred, after which fine clear dry weather set in, with unusually low temperature. At the commencement of the week under review dry land winds (from the north or west) extended to every part of the province, excepting the most easterly districts of East Bengal. Very low humidities were hence registered in Central and South Bengal. The humidity at Dacca, for example, on the 21st, was only 28 per cent., the normal humidity during the latter part of March being 63 per cent. The peculiar features at this time, viz., unusual coolness and dryness of the air, appear to have been an effect of actions in the hills of Northern Bengal, as they were most marked in the immediate neighbourhood of the hills in North Bengal, and to a slightly less extent in North Behar. The minimum temperature on the 19th, 20th and 21st in those districts was from 10° to 15° below the normal. During this interval of very cool weather in Bengal and Behar, a few showers fell in Orissa, the only rain which was received during the week. The land winds in Bengal commenced to diminish in force and to retreat westwards on the 21st. Southerly winds gradually set in over the coast districts of South-West Bengal, and the humidity and temperature of the air increased, at first slowly, and afterwards (on the last two days of the week) somewhat rapidly. The conditions in Behar and Chutia Nagpur, however, remained unchanged. Dry westerly winds continued during the whole week, and remarkably low humidities were registered in South Behar and Chutia Nagpur, and the adjacent districts of South-West Bengal, such as in fact rarely occur, except in May, the hottest and driest month of the year in Behar and Chutia Nagpur. For example, the average 10 A.M. humidity at Hazaribagh for the week was 11 per cent., and the lowest 7 per cent. The normal average 10 A.M. humidity at that station in the middle of March is 29 per cent. The average 10 A.M. humidity at Dehree from the 21st to the 24th was 7 per cent, the lowest being 5 per cent. Hence the pronounced features of the weather during the past week were diminished temperature, especially at night, and unusual dryness of the air. The setting in of southerly winds during the latter part of the week began to initiate a series of changes such as usually terminate in disturbed weather, and thunder-storms or nor-westers in Bengal.

The movements of the barometer were very small. The total range of its movement during the week varied from $\cdot 03''$ to $\cdot 1''$ in different parts of the province. The mean pressure of the week was slightly in excess of the normal pressure, the amount of the excess varying from nil at Chittagong to $\cdot 022''$ at Burdwan and $\cdot 033$ at Hazaribagh. The abnormal character of the weather in the hills of Northern Bengal during the past week is shown by the fact that, whilst pressure was in excess at all the plain stations, it was $\cdot 026''$ in defect at Darjeeling.

A remarkable failure of the week was the unusual coolness of the air. The mean temperature of the week was 5° below the normal temperature in North Behar (and probably North Bengal), $2\cdot 7^{\circ}$ below it in Chutia Nagpur, 2° in South Behar, $1\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ in South-West Bengal and Orissa, and 1° in East Bengal. The day or maximum temperature was slightly above the average in South and East Bengal, but was from 2° to 5° below in the remainder of the province, the deficiency being most marked at Darjeeling. The night temperature was below the average at all stations except Cuttack. The deficiency was largest in amount in Central and North Bengal and in North Behar, where the average defect for the week ranged from 5° to 8° . As already stated, the night temperature in the sub-mountain districts of North Bengal and Behar during the early part of the week was from 10° to 15° below the normal. The following table gives temperature data for eight representative stations:—

No rain fell during the week except a few light showers on the 19th, 20th and 21st in Orissa, which gave it an average of nearly a tenth of an inch. East and North Bengal and South Behar have received average rainfalls since the 1st of the month slightly in excess of the normal, but in other divisions the rainfall of the month up to date is considerably below the average.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature and rainfall data of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the province for the week ending Friday, the 25th of March 1887:—

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, and from observations made at 6h., 10h., 16h. and 22h.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph. The month of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

From the annexed table, exhibiting the vital statistics of the principal Municipalities in Bengal for the week ending 12th March 1887, it appears:—

1. That births and deaths were registered in these Municipalities at the rates, respectively, of 18·6 and 24 per 1,000 of population, against very nearly the same proportions, viz. 18·5 and 23·8 per 1,000, respectively, during the preceding week ending 5th March.

2. That in the following Municipalities, births and deaths were reported to have been recorded at the highest rates:—

INCREASES.

Betelnuts 102 tons.
 This may be accounted for by improved trade between Bengal Central Flotilla stations and the Calcutta market.
 Coal and coke 34 tons.
 Increased despatches for river steamers and for railway purposes during the month.
 Jute 101 tons
 This increase may be attributed to increased facilities offered by the railway as compared with other modes of transport.
 Rice 98 tons.
 The cause of this is to be found in improved trade generally.

Seeds 124 tons.

I account for this increase by assuming that the opening of the railway has afforded facilities for export of produce to the place of shipment for foreign ports and general trade in this article.

DECREASES.

Salt 388 tons.
 The cause of this decrease may be attributed to no demand, consumers having sufficient stocks in hand during the month.
 Sugar 240 tons.
 The Jhikergachi mills are almost at a stand-still, and no improvement in this staple can be looked for until the new season's crop
 Miscellaneous 1,088 tons.

This decrease is in unmanufactured non-classified goods, and it is difficult to account for it; the only way I can do so is by supposing that stocks of such articles as are referred to are laid in periodically, and during the period under reference sufficient were in hand, and we may look for a constant increase and decrease of this traffic.
